there are many studies are conducted to study price and liquidity effects associated with stock split and bonus share. Many of the companies at difference instance found it appropriate to go for stock split and to bring down the price back to the tradable range. However, this may not be the only objective to go for a stock split.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

