LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Net-work diagram of factors influencing the educational and occupational aspirations of women students 28
2. Typical sequence of events in a level of aspiration situation 43
3. Schematic diagram showing the relationship among the dependent and independent variables used in the study 77
4. Distribution of the respondents based on their socio-economic status scores 100
5. Cumulative percent distribution of the respondents based on their educational aspiration scores 108
6. Cumulative percent distribution of the respondents based on their Occupational aspiration scores 127
7. Faculty of study-wise distribution of the respondents based on their occupational aspirations 136
8. Percentage distribution of respondents based on their aspiration for different categories of occupations 140
9. Cumulative percent distribution of the respondents based on their scores of attitudes towards equality of women 151
10. Faculty of study-wise distribution of mean scores of individual statements of attitude scale on equality of women 156
11. Percentage distribution of the respondents belonging to different socio-economic strata based on their educational aspirations 161
12. Percentage distribution of the respondents of single sex and mixed colleges belonging to different socio-economic strata based on their educational aspirations 163
13. Faculty of study-wise distribution of the respondents belonging to different socio-economic strata based on their educational aspirations 165
14. Faculty of study-wise distribution of the respondents belonging to different socio-economic strata based on their occupational aspirations

15. Faculty of study-wise distribution of the respondents belonging to positive and strongly positive ATEW categories based on their educational aspirations

16. Faculty of study-wise distribution of the respondents belonging to positive and strongly positive ATEW categories based on their Occupational Aspirations