LIST OF TABLES

Table No.

1. Total workers in India as of 2011 Census.
2. Sex wise distribution of workers and percentage of cultivators, agricultural labourers and household industry and other workers 2011 Census.
5. Female work participation rate in J&K.
6. Female main workers, marginal workers and non workers to the total female population in J&K 2011.
8. Sex wise distribution of the respondents.
9. Age of respondents.
10. Religion.
11. Area of residence.
12. Main occupation.
14. Monthly income of father of the respondents.
15. Educational qualification of respondents.
17. Main occupation of father of the respondents.
18. Marital status of the respondents.
20. Area of human activity where a woman enjoyed equal status.
22. Awareness about vocational or other training courses.
23. Support to women in education.
25. Household chores performed by women attaining education.
26. Importance of education in women life.
27. Economic independence must be necessary for equality.
28. Means for women to attain economic independence.
30. Effective laws for protecting rights of women at work place.
33. Sectors of women employment.
34. Nature of work performed by women.
35. Working conditions where women work.
36. Working environment at work place.
38. Reasons for separate work place.
39. Special protection for pregnant working women.
40. Nature of such protection.
41. Duration of maternity leave.
42. Period during maternity leave was given.
43. Reason for maternity leave.
44. Maternity leave claimed by respondents.
45. Duration for which maternity leave was given on claim.
46. Other facilities granted with maternity leave.
47. Whether wages deducted during maternity leave period.
48. Sectors where wages deducted during maternity leave.
49. Household chores, child care and public duties easily performed by women.
50. Reasons for not performing such duties easily.
51. Number of time maternity leave given to women.
52. Creches and school necessary at work place.
53. Measures adopted by employer in favour of women workers.
54. Quantum of wages provided to women workers.
55. Meaning of equal salary.
56. Low remuneration for women in any sphere.
57. Reason for low wages.
58. Where complaint could be filed.
59. Role of implementing bodies
60. Importance of protective measures for woman.