ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This intensive research project would remain incomplete if the sentiments of those who contributed directly or indirectly are not acknowledged.

First of all, I am thankful to the almighty God- the most beneficent, the most merciful- for His unlimited guidance and blessing upon me to accomplish this Ph.D. dissertation in a better way. It would not have been possible without His will and support. I pay my obeisance to Almighty who provided me the light and encouragement to take-up and handle this project.

The long path toward completing this doctoral thesis was paved with the help and support of many people. I pay a debt of special gratitude to my learned and prudent supervisor Dr. Fulbag Singh, Professor, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, for his mature, able & invaluable guidance and persistent encouragement. This thesis would not have seen the light of the day without his continuous inspiration, invaluable guidance, constructive criticism and untiring endeavors throughout the period of this study. No words can express my sincere and deep sense of reverence for him. I owe thanks to him for all the help, painstaking efforts and deep insight into the problem and thus improving the quality of work at all stages. I am extremely indebted to him for the technical attitude he has inculcated in me which will definitely standby in all future endeavors.

I am also indebted to Dr. Inderjit Kaur, President of All India Pingalwara Charitable Society, Amritsar, for her extreme support and co-ordination in carrying out the research work. Words are insufficient to express my gratefulness and indebtedness to Mr. Tilak Raj, General Manager, All India Pingalwara Charitable Society, Amritsar, for providing relevant and important information.

I am especially thankful to Dr. G.S.Bhalla, Professor, Department of Commerce and Business Management, for his invaluable support, encouragement and constructive criticism for completing this dissertation.

My special regards from the depth of my heart to my parents, brother and sister for constant encouragement during the conduct of this research work.
I extend my sincerest gratitude to my friend Er. Tarundeep Singh, Assistant Professor, Chief Khalsa Diwan Institute of Management, Amritsar, for extending his help in every manner. His constant support has been of great help in the smooth completion of this work.

I express my heartfelt thanks along with gratefulness and indebtedness to all my colleagues who have directly or indirectly helped me to complete my work.

My sincere appreciation goes to the respondents for their cooperation during the data collection.

Apart from personal efforts and steadfastness to work, constant inspiration and encouragement given by a number of individuals served as the driving force that enabled me to submit this thesis in the present form. Inspiration, guidance, direction, co-operation, all came in abundance and it seems almost an impossible task for me to acknowledge the same in adequate terms.

Baljit Singh
BALJIT SINGH