ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Achieving a milestone for any person alone is extremely difficult. However, there are motivators who come across the curvaceous path like twinkling stars in the sky and make the task much easier. I take this rare opportunity to acknowledge the invaluable help rendered to me.

Guru gobind dou khade kake lage pai,
Balshari guru apne gobind diyo bataye

Words cannot easily express the heartfelt gratitude, respect and appreciation to my esteemed guide Dr. (Mrs.) Reeta Sonawat, Professor and Head of the Department of Human Development. It was a blessing for me to work under such an eminent personality. She has been my most inspiring force throughout the course of study with her guidance, patience, understanding, her knowledge and the personal interest, which she took in the work. Her words of encouragement, “Keep trying and not to give up” has inculcated in me the habit of working hard. I am sure that this will give me strength throughout my life.

I am sincerely thankful to the schools, principals, and the preprimary coordinators, for granting me the permission to conduct the research. Specially thanks to the preprimary teachers for their warm response in talking and listening to me and little kids for becoming part of my study, without which data collection would have been impossible.

I feel obligated to express my sincere thanks to all the scholars, researchers, authors whose works and views have gone a long way in shaping my own thinking on the subject and planning and conducting this research study.

I extend my deep appreciation to Mr. J. C. Sharma, for statistical help.

I warmly thank to teaching and non teaching staff of the department of Human Development, Home Science.

I would also like to thank Dr. (Mrs.) Sudha Chhikara, Ms Navjyoti Sandil, and Ms. Gurpreet Kaur for helping in validating my tool.
Friendship has been always a possession for me; I take the privilege to express my immense degree of thanks for Ms Poonam, Neeru, Prachi, Neha and Pooja.

My revered in-laws, mother, brother Abhishek, his wife Meenakshi, sister Abhilasha and sister in-law Rekha not only deserve just thanks but much more than what I can weigh in words. Their silent prayers, aesthetic love, and affection and still belief in my capabilities have enabled me to make this endeavor see the light of the day.

At this final moment, how can I forget my husband Piyush Partani. He has been an unfaltering source of strength in throughout my Ph.D research. In moments of sagging morale and flickering confidence he was present there as a solid prop helping me affectionately with all his talent and resource to face challenges that came my way. My children Anuva and Pranjal has been spring of joy and cheers in the moments of sullenness and gloomy mood. I am indebted to my all family members, especially my father. Although he is no longer with me, he is forever remembered.

Last but not least, thanks to the God for my life through all tests in the past four years. You have made my life more bountiful. May your name be exalted, honored, and glorified.

Dated: 1.2.11

Swati Partani