Acknowledgement

Today as I write this acknowledgement I do so with a deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed Teacher and Guide Prof. Navnit Agarwal, M.D., Professor, Department of Medicine, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi for having guided me through our thesis work. A brilliant diabetologist and an eminent academician, it has been my proud privilege to have been associated with him and to work under his guidance. I express my reverent gratitude to him for his able guidance, sound supervision and valuable suggestions without which it would have not been possible to complete this work.

I am also indebted to my Co-guide Professor P.K. Jain, M.D., M.N.A.M.S, Professor and Head, Department of Medicine, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi. About sir, the more said is less. His affectionate guidance, invaluable support and suggestions, constructive criticism and meticulous attention have made this work possible. It is virtually impossible to express in words my deep sense of gratitude to him.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my learned and honourable teachers Prof. Praveen Kumar Jain, M.D., D.M., Dr. N.S. Sengar, M.D., D.M., and Dr. Nutan Agarwal M.D., Department of Medicine for giving me inspiration and encouragement throughout my residency period.
I am indebted to my parents for their love and encouragement and it is a pleasure to acknowledge the help extended by my wife Preeti during the study.

I am highly thankful to my colleagues and Juniors of Medicine Department for their extreme co-operation in the entire period of work to carry out this present study.

Lastly but not the least I am thankful to all the patients who were the very basis of this study.

Mr. Vinod Raikwar (V.K. Graphics, Medical Campus), with his meticulous typing and humble nature formed an inseparable part of this study. He did the typing work even at odd hours.
