ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not traveled in a vacuum in this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and Primary health centre’s (PHCs). At the end of my thesis I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me. At the end of my thesis, it is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me. At this moment of accomplishment, first of all I pay homage to my guide, Dr. R. B. Sathyavathi, Assistant Professor.

This work would not have been possible without her guidance, support and encouragement. Under her guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. I can’t forget her hard times, and I wish her soul roots in peace and solace in the heaven. I can only say a proper thanks to her through my future work.

I owe much to Dr. T. Kumaraswamy Professor & Head, Department of Adult and Continuing Education, S.V. University, Tirupati for his affectionate encouragement and moral support in the drafting of thesis in every phase of my research work.

I express my heartfelt thanks to the faculty members Prof. M. C. Reddeppa Reddy, Prof. Dr. P. Adinarayana Reddy, Prof. K. Sudha Rani, Dr Syam Mohan David Raju, Department of Adult and Continuing Education, S.V.
