

Acknowledgement

The gratitude is expressed to S. N. D. T. women's University for giving study leave under Faculty Improvement Scheme without which undertaking of study was impossible.

The investigator gratefully acknowledges, the assistance extended to her, by her guide, Dr. (Mrs) Marriamma. A Varghese, Director, Department of Post graduate studies and Research in Home Science, S. N. D. T. women's university for stimulating suggestions, tireless efforts and encouragement and above all the valuable time spent by her in guidance throughout the study, without which this study would have been inconceivable.

The gratitude is also expressed to education department of Bombay Municipal Corporation and Government of Maharashtra for supplying list of schools and sanctioning permission to collect data.

The gratitude is also expressed to Mr. Mahagaonkar and Mr. Chatterjee of Crompton Greaves and Mr. Vata of Philips India for information and help provided by them.

Gratitude is also expressed to all the Principals of schools and Doctors of Nair Hospital and G. D. Somani High School for conducting medical test of samples and providing accurate information.

The investigator is very grateful to all the respondents and their family members without whose co-operation the study would not have been possible.

The investigator is thankful to all the well wishers and friends who have encouraged her for doing the study.

The investigator is extremely grateful to her husband Shri Jatin Joshi for bearing inconvenience co-operation and encouragement given without which this study would not have been possible.

Gratitude is expressed to late Pushpaben Desai, Smt. Mayaben Desai and Mrs. Leena Kapadia for encouragement given.

Lastly sincere gratitude is expressed to Shri Hemang Tanna of Pagecrafters for computing and printing the thesis.