ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The investigator expresses her thanks to Dr. N. Rathna, Director, Ali Yavar Jung National Institute for the Hearing Handicapped, Bombay for his guidance and help provided in conducting this study.

She is thankful to Dr. Gunnar Fant, Stockholm, Sweden, for the help provided in formulating some of the hypotheses in this study.

She is extremely grateful to Dr. Shailaja Nikam, Professor and Head, Department of Audiology, All India Institute of Speech and Hearing for her constant encouragement.

She is thankful to Professor Sheshachala Sharma, Assistant Professor, Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore and Professor Ramaswamy Iyengar, Professor in Grammar, Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore.

She thanks NP Nataraja, Head, Department of Speech Sciences, All India Institute of Speech and Hearing, for the help and assistance provided.

She is also thankful to Mr. S. S. Murthy, Head, Electronics Lab, All India Institute of Speech and Hearing, Mr. K. C. Ravisankar, Head, Department of Audiology, Ali Yavar Jung National Institute for the Hearing Handicapped, Bombay, Miss. Devaki Devi R, Head, Department of Speech Pathology, Ali Yavar Jung National Institute for the Hearing Handicapped, Bombay and Miss Manjula R, Clinical Supervisor, All India Institute of Speech and Hearing, Mysore.

She thanks Dr. Shankuntala Sharma, Central Institute of Indian Languages, Mysore for the statistical assistance provided. She is thankful to Mr. T. V. Satyanarayana, Research Assistant, Oriental Research Institute, Mysore for correcting the Sanskrit transcriptions.

The investigator is grateful to all her subjects who willingly provided samples of their speech.

She thanks Mrs. Susheela Bai for typing this thesis neatly.

This work was made possible by the financial support from University Grants Commission, University of Mysore, Mysore.