ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr. R. Ramakrishna, Professor of Linguistics and Director, Kuvempu Institute of Kannada Studies, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore, India for the his continuous support of my Ph.D. study and research, for his patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge.

Besides my supervisor, I would like to thank Dr. B. K. Ravidranath, Asst. Professor of Linguistic Anthropology, Department of Studies in Linguistics, Kuvempu Institute of Kannada Studies, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore, Karnataka, India for his encouragement, insightful comments, hard questions, unfailing academic helpfulness throughout this research study.

Later I want to take this opportunity to express my thanks to Thai students studying in University of Mysore for dedicating their times to run my Ph.D. document while I was living in Thailand.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my parents Mr. Ta and Mrs. Peng Nantaphumi for giving birth to me at the first place and supporting me spiritually throughout my life, and my teachers and friends, their spiritual inspiration and intellectual motivation to me.

Finally, to all those mentioned, and to others not named, but who engaged and supported me in my academic endeavors, I extend a heartfelt thanks. It is I, not them, who takes sole responsibility for any errors or shortcomings in this work. However, if there is any merit or praise to be found in what is contained in these pages, that must be shared among the many, named and unnamed, who helped and guided me along the way.

Phra Soraphan Nantaphumi