ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I am thankful of God; glory to him for giving me life, health, knowledge, best husband, wonderful boy, supportive parents and brothers, excellent professor, and many uncountable things.

It is my great pleasure to express a deep sense of gratitude to my guide, Dr. K.Yeshodhara, Professor in Education, Department of Studies in Education, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore, for her advice, appropriate guidance, utmost patience and keen interest, constant supervision encouragement provided to me throughout the period of my research work for Ph.D. degree in Education. Although I fell behind her expectation, she was still ready to help and encourage me. However, her severe challenging let me reflect myself and find my real problems. It was a privilege for me to be associated with her.

I am grateful to Dr. M.S.Lalithamma, Professor in Education and Chairperson, Department of Studies in Education, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore, for her precious timely suggestions and advice that helped me to a great extent.

I also thank all the members of teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department for their cooperation throughout my stay in the Department.
I also thank the heads and teachers of high schools in Bangalore (India) and Sanandaj (Iran), for their cooperation and help in collecting data for the my Ph.D. thesis work.

I am extremely thankful to my parents and brothers, for their moral support and encouragement throughout the research period till completion.

And last but not least, I express my deep sense of appreciation to my husband (Rahmat) for his “always available” support and help and my dear son (Ehsan), for his patience and perseverance during the period of my study and research in India.

… any omissions in this brief acknowledgment does not mean lack of gratitude.
