ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere thanks to Dr. A. RAMESH, M.Sc., Ph.D., M.I.S., Professor and Head, Department of Geography, University of Madras, for his continued encouragement and the keen interest taken in the progress of this work.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. S. SUBBIAH, M.Sc., M.Phil., Ph.D., Reader in Geography, University of Madras, for his meticulous guidance, valuable suggestions, constructive ideas, constant encouragement, immense help and fruitful discussion in bringing out the thesis successfully. It is my pleasure to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to my benevolent guide who spent all his valuable time to jointly conduct this research on Rural Regional Development, Energy and Environment in North Arcot District.

My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. P.S. TIWARI, Prof. Dr. (Mrs) VASANTHA VISWANATH and Dr. N. SIVAGNANAM, Dr. T. VASANTHAKUMARAN, Reader in Geography and Mr. A. RAJMOHAN, for their continued support.

I also wish to thank the Block Statistical Officers, Department of Statistics, North Arcot District, Government of Tamil Nadu, Village Administrative Officers of the respective sample villages, District Agricultural Officer, Soil Testing Laboratory, Melalathur, Gudiyatham, North Arcot District, for providing me the necessary data, reports, maps, and relevant information. My sincere thanks to Mrs. GOVINDAMMAL, (Convenor, Uzavar Mandram, North Arcot District), Mr. Dharuman (Nedumpuli), Mr. Sivanandam (Irumbedu), Mr. Gopal Naidu (Palayanur-Kilpadi), Mr. Perumal (Agaramcheri), Mr. Rama Reddy (Elagiri), and Mrs. Andal (Kunnathur), Mr. Karthekayan (Soil Research Station, Melalathur), who all had helped during my primary data collection in the sample villages. I am also obliged to thank the sample respondents who patiently responded in giving the voluminous informations and particulars needed for the study.

My heartfelt thanks are to Mr. Madheswaran, who had helped tremendously in computing and analysing the data and preparing the thesis in such a short time. I wish to thank Mr. Rajendran and Mr. Ramasamy, for their computer assistance, Mr. Yugendran, for his efficient cartographic skill and Mr. Ilangoovan, for the neat and systematic typing.

I am very much thankful to Dr. R. Gunaseivan and Dr. L. Vedavalli, for their intensive inspiration and commendable support and kind help at various stages of research. I do not know how to express my deep sense of thanks to my young friends, Miss Vasudha, Miss Dharini, Miss Nayanatara and Miss Thulasimala, who have volunteered their meticulous help at the crucial stage of my thesis submission. My thanks are also to my colleagues in the department, for their co-operation.

My hearty thanks to my loving daughter and to my Husband P. Muralidharan, for his encouragement and continued help at every stage of my research progress. I shall be failing in my duty, if I do not express my deep sense of gratitude to my parents who have helped a lot throughout my work physically and financially and make this attempt a success.
