ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to place on record my deep gratitude to my Supervising teacher, Dr Elias Valentine, formerly Professor and Director of the Centre for English Language Teaching, University of Kerala, for the inspiration, guidance and encouragement he has provided for this study.

I am also indebted to Dr K. Radha, Professor and Head of the Institute of English and the present Director of the Centre for English Language Teaching, University of Kerala for providing necessary facilities and making valuable suggestions for the conduct of the work. I am grateful also to the members of the Doctoral Committee, Dr V.I. Subramoniam and Dr K. Ayyappa Paniker. I owe special thanks to the staff of the Centre for English Language Teaching, especially Mr M. Appakudam, the Section Officer for all help rendered for carrying out this work.

The Librarians and the staff of the Kerala University Library, Institute of English Library, The British Council Library, Thiruvananthapuram, St Thomas Apostolic Seminary Library, Kottayam, the CIEFL Library, Hyderabad, have also helped me to complete this study. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all of them.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the University of Kerala for granting me a Junior Research Fellowship for conducting this study.

I should like to avail myself of this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to Dr George Punnakottil, Bishop of Kothamangalam for kindly granting me leave of absence for carrying out this research work.

P.V. VARGHESE