ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is a modest attempt to study the sustainability of micro enterprises run by Self Help Groups and its impact on women empowerment. Different people from various walks of life are associated with this study and I acknowledge with gratitude their support and encouragement which enabled me to complete this work.

First of all I thank God Almighty for enabling me to carry out this work. Words can hardly express my sincere gratitude to my research guide Dr. N. Laiitha, Reader, Department of Mural Development at Gandhigram Rural University, Gandhigram. In spite of her tight schedule and official commitments, she wholeheartedly spent many hours with me. I am very much indebted for her expert guidance and personal attention to every minute detail of the research work to make it perfect. I am very thankful to Dr. C. Pitchai, Faculty Member, Institute of Cooperative Management Madurai and member of doctoral committee for his valuable suggestions and guidance in making this study a meaningful one.

I express my sincere gratitude to Bishop Mar Mathew Arackal who first encouraged me to conduct this study. I am so grateful to him for his constant encouragement and suggestions. I also extend my sincere thanks to Dr. B.S. Nagarajan, Former Dean, Faculty of Rural Development, Gandhigram Rural University for his constant encouragement and support.

I am very thankful to the management of Peermade Development Society for giving me an opportunity to conduct this study. Words can hardly express my gratitude to Fr. Augustine Kariapurara, Executive Director, Fr. Hubby Mathew, Programme Director and Fr. Thomas Kuttipalackal, Joint Director for their constant encouragement and support.

My special thanks to all the officials of NABARD, banks, NGOs and local bodies who cooperated with me in sharing their experiences in the field. I am very grateful to Mr. D. Varghese, former DDM, NABARD, Idukki and officials of Kudumbashree and DRDA for their cooperation in providing the secondary data and other relevant information. I also thank all the women in the study area who cooperated with me during every stage of my work.
During my study, many of my co-workers and staff at Peermade Development Society have helped me a lot in conducting this research. I am so grateful to them all without leaving anyone out. My sincere thanks to Mr. Mathew Janies and Mrs. Sindhu Mathew who were so willing to help me all the time.

Last but not least, my sincere thanks to the staff at the libraries of Gandhigram Rural University, Gandhigram, Department of Rural Development, Gandhigram and Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India, Ahmadabad in providing me the resource materials. I express my wholehearted gratitude to all other experts in the field of micro finance and micro enterprise development who kindly shared their knowledge and expertise with me.
