ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I never quite expected that doing a PhD would turn out to be such a daunting task. Had it not been for the guidance and support from many, this effort might not have seen fruition. First and foremost, I am indebted to my supervisor Dr. Chanderdeep Tandon for his untiring support and guidance throughout my entire candidature. His valuable advice in performing the laboratory work and publishing the research papers proved to be very vital in shaping the course of it. Further, his critical comments and suggestions on various aspects of the thesis have definitely improved the quality of this work. His positive attitude always inspired me in doing my research work consistently.

I also thank my co-supervisor Dr. S. K. Singh of Urology Department, PGI Chandigarh not only for providing me the extensive medical knowledge required but also for providing the kidney stones from PGI.

My earnest gratitude to Hon’ble Vice Chancellor of Jaypee University of Information Technology, Dr. Yajalu Medury for providing me an opportunity of pursuing PhD from this University. I am thankful to him for providing me the lab infrastructure and teaching assistantship. Next, I would like to express my gratitude to the registrar Brib.(Retd.) Balbir Singh for his encouragement and moral boost up.

I learnt a lot about the bioinformatics from Dr. Pradeep Naik whose knowledge in this area is astounding. I would like to thank him for the much-valued technical advice he has rendered during our numerous discussions. I also thank the HOD, Biotechnology and Bioinformatics Dr. R.S. Chauhan for distinct ability to maintain cordial environment in the department.
Further, I would like to thank my friends Dr. Tanzeer and Dr. Rakesh Bijrani whose timely and most willing help as well as support was very crucial for me. Thanks to my colleagues for good feedback on research issues or simply for providing good atmosphere: Hemant, Priyanka, Aarti, Nidhi, Payal, Bharti, Tamanna, Kanupriya, Anu, Anshu, Sunil and Saurabh. Working with you all has been a cherishable journey. I would also like to thank the laboratory staff of BT & BI Department, JUIT.

Family support had been very crucial for me in this effort. Thanks to my in-laws, parents and brothers for their constant encouragement. Special thanks to Pushpa without whom this work would have been impossible. Thanks to my lovely kids Akshat and Maulti who have been the driving force behind this pursuit. Lastly, special thanks to my husband who has been a constant pillar of support during this trying period. To all acknowledged I solemnly owe this work.
