B.R. Mehta working in Department of Information and Public Relations, and other staff members for timely help and compilation of thesis. I extend my gratitude to Prithpal and his family whom I always find my best companion to finalise artwork in computer along with my children Vikalp and Mayank. They are my troubleshooter without them it is impossible to finalise the thesis.
I am equally thankful to Prof. Vepa Rao, Prof. Vir Bala and Dr. Vikas of Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Himachal Pradesh University, Sh. B. D Sharma, Director Information & Public Relations, (H.P and my colleagues especially Dr. Rajesh Sharma and other good friends for their encouragement during the research work.

I have deep regard to my parents who never let me down in my adversity and taught to fight back to poor and needy in help, I inherit their values always in life. There came many ups and down in my study period unforgettable, hurting crossing the barrier of my struggle for leading happy life, there was time when I thought it is more or less end of better life I ventured tirelessly due to the companionship of my wife Ms. Jyoti and kids Vikalp and Mayank to complete the uphill task.

I also owe my special thanks to Dr. S.K. Ghabru and Dr. Naresh Sharma their cooperation made me to complete thesis well in time with whom I could share my problems during the works. I extend my thanks to village people and officials who were directly attached to the work who provided the valuables inputs to the study.

Lastly, I am grateful to supreme authority GOD and I dedicate this research to poor people of the country especially in Himachal Pradesh.
