ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Completion of this research work is the fulfilment of my efforts after several years of its beginning and especially four years of retirement from the Department of History, Newman College, Thodupuzha. It would have never been fulfilled but for the love, generosity, encouragement, valuable advice and guidance Dr. Rajan Gurukkal, my Supervising teacher had extended to me. Since my post graduate student’s days in Union Christian College, Alwaye in 1978, I feel in him my real Guru. I record here with due respect, my deep gratitude and obligation to Prof. Dr. Rajan Gurukkal for all that he has done to me.

I thankfully acknowledge the help and support rendered to me by Dr. Ram Mohan, Director, School of Social Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam.

My discussions with Dr. M. G. S. Narayanan, Dr. K. K. N. Kurup, Dr. M. R. Raghava Varier, Dr. Kesavan Veluthat, Dr. E. K. G. Nambiar, Dr. K. N. Ganesh, Dr. K. S. Mathew, Dr. Asokan Mundon, Smt. Beena Sarasan and Dr. P. J. Cherian were extremely beneficial for this study. I thank all of them sincerely.

Special thanks are due to Dr. Pius Malekandathil of Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, who amidst of his various responsibilities shared his time and energy for providing me new insights by valuable comments, observations and criticisms.

I remember with gratitude the co-operation and support I enjoyed from all the Faculty Members and Staff in the Office, Library and Computer Lab of School of Social Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam. I extend my thanks to each one of them.

In the course of my data collection I had met with and interviewed many numismatists and coin collectors. I am indebted to Shri. Mathew M. Tharakkunnel, Pala, who was of great help and support to me with his big collection of books and coins. I also remember late Rev. Fr. T. C. Joseph Thazhathel, a committed numismatist.

I am obliged to Dr. P. T. Sebastian for his continuing help and inspiration for completing this work. I thank him for all that he has done for me.

I feel a sense of gratitude to my veteran colleague Dr. K. V. Dominic, who meticulously went through the language of the thesis and made corrections wherever necessary. I also remember with gratitude Prof. P. A. John, Sr. Dr. Leelamma Mathew and Shri. Thomas Puthur, who spared their time in going through the manuscripts.

I must mention some of the names of my colleagues in Newman College, like Dr. T. M. Joseph, Principal, Prof. Itteera Chacko, Prof. K. A. Benny, Dr. P. A. Jose, Dr. S. Sankararaman and Late Prof. M. M. Mathew. Dr. C. J. Varghese of UC College, Alwaye, is also to be remembered on this occasion.

At various stages of this study I have benefited much from the co-operation and selfless help extended to me by Shri. Kuttappan Chettiar of Calicut University Library, Smt. Vimalamma Mathew, M. P. Manikuttan, Thampan, Dr. Beena Paul, Dr. Mathew Kuzhalnadan (formerly of JNU, New Delhi), Abhilash Joseph, Pala and Ambili S. I remember all of them with gratitude.

Ever since the registration of my research in the university all official matters were persistently followed up with the exceptional perfection by Shri. M. S. Venukumar, of MG University Office. My sincere thanks are due to him.

Let me keep on record the invaluable assistance rendered to me by Sandeep M. V. and other young friends like, Sreenath, Roopesh, Anoop, Sreejith, Vineesh, Sachin, and Pathmanabha. The thesis was typed by Shiji George, Newman College Computer Centre, Akhil M. P., Rechana Printers, Thodupuzha and the major task of it was undertaken and fulfilled with perfection by Sujatha and others of Rajendra Laser Printers. My thanks to them are beyond limits.
I am greatly indebted to Shri. Gijo Thomas, my brother-in-law who passed away last week. He was always with me helping, whenever and wherever I went for the data collection.

I acknowledge my deep gratitude to my parents who made me what I am. My children, Augustine and Amalu encouraged me a lot to complete this research and I remember them gratefully. The support and encouragement I got from my wife, Gemini (Jesamma) is inexpressible. I am much grateful to her.

There are many others who helped me one way or other in my research. The constraints of space do not permit me to mention their names. My deep gratitude goes to all of them. I express my deep gratitude and love to the God Almighty for the blessings showered on me till this day.
