ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Words fail me in expressing my heartfelt gratitudes to my guide, and my inspiration, Dr. Rajni Kashyap, Deptt. of Psychology, D.J. College Baraut, C.C.S. University, Meerut for her invaluable guidance and untiring efforts. She has not only supervised each and every aspect of this research but has also been a constant source of encouragement and moral support to me.

My profound thanks to Principal D.J. College Baraut for providing me facilities. I also wish to express my gratitude to the Dr. Uma Rani, Head of Deptt. and Dr. Neeraj Deptt. of Psychology, D.J. College Baraut, for their encouragement, motivation, cooperation and good wishes. I am also thankful to Dr. Madhu Mathur, U.G.C. Research Scientist, and suggestions which in received throughout the study, especially in statistical analysis of results.

I want to extend my gratitude to Dr. KumKum Pareek, Deptt. of Psychology, R.G.(P.G) College, Meerut, who managed to spare his precious time to reply to all my queries promptly and in detail. I am also grateful to Dr. Sanjay, Deptt. of Psychology, C.C.S. University, Meerut and Dr. Vandana Sharma, Deptt. of Psychology, Ismail (P.G) College, Meerut for extending encouragement and inspiration that enabled me to initiate this work.

Sincere thanks are also due to the Principals, teachers and students of schools included in this study. Without their co-operation the study would not have been a success. I am grateful to the librarians of various libraries, who allowed me to use the library facilities. I am thankful to my brother & sisters and other family members for ensuring conducive atmosphere and full co-operation throughout the entire duration of my research work. I am indebted to there for their kind consideration and care during the extended period.

I dedicate this thesis to my parents, who had provide me the opportunity, sustenance and encouragement to indulge in this arduous task, with special thanks to my brother (Mr. Ajay Dalal) and sister (Roopa Dalal), who had been a pillar of strength for me.

Though it is practically impossible to list all of those who have shaped my thinking and approach with their suggestions and comments, such list would definitely include many of my co-researchers and friends. My warmest thanks to all of them.
