CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION 1-37

1.0.0  Introduction
1.1.0  Modern approaches
1.1.1  Carroll’s Model
1.1.2  Bloom’s Model
1.1.3  Major Variables in Mastery Learning model
1.1.4  Tests in Mastery learning
1.2.0  Inquiry Training Model
1.3.0  Justification of the present study
1.4.0  Statement of the problem
1.5.0  Operational definitions of the terms used
1.6.0  Objectives
1.7.0  Hypotheses
1.8.0  Delimitations

CHAPTER II REVIEW OF THE RELATED LITERATURE 38-77

CHAPTER III DESIGN AND PROCEDURE OF THE STUDY 78-122

3.0.0  Introduction
3.1.0  Design
3.2.0  Variables Involved
3.3.0 Control employed
3.4.0 Sample
3.5.0 Tools used
3.6.0 Development of experimental material
3.7.0 Experimental procedure
3.8.0 Scoring
3.9.0 Statistical Analysis

CHAPTER-IV INTERPRETATION AND DISCUSSION OF RESULTS

4.0.0 Introduction
4.0.1 Testing the assumptions
4.0.2 Analysis of data
4.1.0 Effect of models of teaching on students' Achievement
4.2.0 Effect of models of teaching on students' Self-Concept.
4.3.0 Effect of models of teaching on students' Creativity.
4.4.0 Effect of models of teaching on students' Fluency, Flexibility and Originality.

CHAPTER-V FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, IMPLICATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS FOR FURTHER RESEARCH
5.0.0 Introduction
5.1.0 Findings
5.2.0 Conclusions
5.3.0 Educational Implications
5.4.0 Suggestions for further Research.

CHAPTER-VI SUMMARY 198-240

BIBLIOGRAPHY 241-257

APPENDICES

Appendix -A  Try out Achievement test and Scoring Key
Appendix -B  Bivariate scatter diagram
Appendix -C  Final Achievement test and Scoring Key
Appendix -D  Self-Concept Questionnaire
Appendix -E  Verbal test of Creativity by Prof. Baqer Mehdi
Appendix -F  Urban form of S.E.S by Kuppuswamy
Appendix -G  Cattel's Culture Fair test of mental abilities
Appendix -H  Lesson plans of Mastery learning model
Appendix -I  Lesson plans of Inquiry training model
Appendix -J  Formative test
