Acknowledgement

During the past four years, I received cooperation and encouragement from many people, without which the completion of this thesis would not have been possible for me. I, therefore, feel my pleasant duty to acknowledge the valuable help received from different quarters in the course of this work. It is my humble duty and proud privilege to place on record of my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Amar Singh, Head, Department of History, M.D. University, Rohtak, for his ever stimulating, valuable and readily available supervision; constructive suggestions and encouragement in the preparation of this research work. I also express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Prof. R.C. Thakran, Head, Department of History, University of Delhi for providing me valuable information on geography and cultural data of my study region. I am obligated to Late Dr. Suraj Bhan and Dr. R.S. Bisht who taught me to categorize my uncooked ideas without putting any restriction on self-governing thinking.

I am very grateful to Dr. R.N. Singh (AH Culture and Archaeology, B.H.U. Varanasi) who not only gave me exposure while working in the field but also allowed me to participate in the excavations at Dabliwas Chugta for better understanding of material remains of Early Harappan culture in my study region. Dr. Cameron A. Petrie and C.A.I. French (University of Cambridge) attended to my difficulties to best of their capabilities with patience and always being a constant source of inspiration for me. Dr. C.A. Petrie also provided me relevant mapping from time to time. I extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Rakesh Tiwari (Director, U.P. State Archaeology Department) and Dr. Akio Kusukawa (Japan), for providing me their valuable suggestions on the subject of my research.

I am extremely grateful to all my teachers who taught me various aspects of History and Archaeology, viz. Prof. Manmohan Kumar, Prof. Nirmal Kashyap, Dr. J.S. Dhankhar, Dr. Vijay Kumar and Dr. Bindu Mattoo, Department of History, M.D. University, Rohtak. I am thankful to Sh. Jagdish Sangwan, Mrs. Madhu, Mr. Raj Kumar and Kuldeep, Department of History, M.D.U. Rohtak, who always helped me in various ways.

I am very thankful to the people of district Hanumangarh for helping and co-operating me to locate ancient sites in the region.

I am thankful also to my friends Narender Parmar (Research Scholar, Deccan College Pune), Appu Sharan and Sandeep Malik who afforded me all essential support during the course of exploration and helped me at every step of this work with keen interest. I am very grateful also to my friends Dr. Sajjan Jalandra, Dr. Vijay Kumar, Dr. Vivek Dangi, Dr. Rakesh Dalal, Rajesh Brahman, Sandeep Chahal, Bajrang, Sarveep, Sudhir, Anil Pahlwan, Ashwani (M.D.U. Rohtak), S. Neogi, D. Parikh, Yama Dixit (University of Cambridge), Dr. Amol Kulkarni, Nilesh Jadhav and Ayumu Kinasukawa (Research Scholars, Deccan College, Pune) who helped me directly or indirectly in the completion of this work.

It is my pleasant duty to thank the staff of M.D. University library, Rohtak, library of University of Delhi and B.H.U. Varanasi for allowing me to use all the required books and research journals. I honestly thank the authorities of M.D. University, Rohtak, for providing me financial assistance in the form of University Research scholarship.

I would be weakening in my research work if appreciations are not mentioned for my elder brother Kapil Pawar who shared all innate responsibilities and duties of home when I was busy with my work. His nice and energetic cooperation, I always found behind me. Words would fail to express my heartfelt sentiments for the love and encouragement that I received from my spouse, Dr. Monika Pawar. I am obliged to my cousins Anurag, Pardeep, Deepak, Amit, Rajat, Devansh, Yazur, Zanith, and nephews Kavya, Shakshi and Suryansh who continuously helped me many ways and motivated for hard working.

Words would fail to express my heartfelt sentiments for the love, blessing and encouragement that I received from my Mama Prof. Sultan Singh Chahal and Adv. Manoj Chahal, Chacha and Mummy Ins. Raj Singh and Smt. Ompati Devi, Chacha and Mummy Dr. Ranbir Bisla and Smt. Prof. Santosh Bisla, my sister Usha and Brother-in-law Satpal Dhull. They have been a great source of inspiration and enthusiasm for me. Last but not least, I would like to express my deep love and heartfelt thanks to my parents Tauji and papa (Ins. Attar Singh Pawar and Sh. Baljeet Pawar), Mummy and Maa (Smt. Nandkpr and Smt. Roshani Devi) who always with their magnanimous love, supported me.
