ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am greatly indebted to Dr. K. Santhanam, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., and would like to record here my heartfelt gratitude to him for all his valuable guidance and help towards completing this research. He was always a great source of encouragement through his availability, friendliness and professional advice. I am immensely grateful to Prof. Abdul Samad, M.A., M.Phil., Principal of Jamal Mohamed College for all his keen interest and encouragement in my endeavour. I am also grateful to Prof. Albert, M.A., the Head of the Department of English in Jamal Mohamed College. I would like to thank Rev. Dr. S. John Britto, S.J., the Principal of St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirapalli. I am very grateful to Prof. V. Richard, the Head of the Department of English in St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirapalli. I gratefully recall all the valuable advice given by my teacher and colleague, Prof. G. Balakrishnan, M.A., M.Phil., Vice-Principal, St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirapalli. I am in a special way thankful to the Society of Jesus and the fellow Jesuits at St. Joseph's College for the constant encouragement towards me. I am particularly thankful to Fr. Aloysius Irudayam, the then Provincial Superior of Madurai Jesuit Province for enabling me to undertake research and for sending me to Boston, in the United States of America. I would like to fondly remember the Jesuit companions at Boston College and the library staff over there who were always willing to help me with an unfailing smile. I appreciate the valuable assistance I received from Prof. Antonysamy, M.A., M.Phil., B.Ed., Loyola College, Madras and Prof. Jesurajan, M.A., M.Phil., St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirapalli. I cannot forget the companionship and advice provided by Prof. Pappu Benjamin Elango, M.A., M.Phil., B.L., in taking me to the cool and serene heights of Kodaikanal during the summer of 1994 for undisturbed intensive study. I should acknowledge the hard work of typing done by Mr. J. Charles, M.Sc., M.Phil., PGDCSA, and Mr. George. I am very grateful to Mr. S. Venugopal, M.A., MLIS, PGDCSA, for getting the thesis into the present form. There are many other good friends who have stood by me and accompanied me in this journey of research. I am grateful to all of them.

Fr. Sebastian, SJ
