ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my profound privilege to acknowledge my infinite feeling of gratitude and indebtedness to my esteemed guide Dr. S.S. Chahar, Professor of Public Administration and Director, Centre for Haryana Studies, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak a distinguished teacher, who despite his numerous preoccupation has been generous enough to spare time to look into this work. It is my honour to have worked under the guidance of my revered teacher. His motivating and timely advises, constant encouragement limitless patience, unflattering interest, vigilant supervision, sublime suggestion and sound knowledge of the subject have always inspired me to conduct this work.

I take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude to Dr. (Mrs.) Shashi Kala Mehra, Professor and Head, Department of Public Administration for her encouraging and helping attitude provided me throughout the execution of this study. I am highly thankful to Prof. S.C. Arora and Dr. Sewa Singh Dahiya teachers of my Department, who provided me ready help whenever the need arouse.

My thanks are also due to both the elected and administrative wings of the sampled zila parishads; staff of the Election and Finance Commissions of Haryana; Library staff of Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi; Haryana Institute of Public Administration, Gurgaon; Participatory Research in Asia. New Delhi, Library staff of Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak and Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for their help and cooperation.

I am also thankful to all my friends and relatives who have helped me in many ways. This study would not have been possible without the positive cooperation of Shobhit, my son, Dr. R.K. Kundu, my husband, Umed Singh Kundu, my father in law; Dhanpati, my mother in law; Poonam and Sarita, my sisters in law. Last but not least I owe my indebtedness to my parents and other family members who provided me the opportunity to undertake and complete this work.

I am also thankful to Mr. Jitender Girdhar (JK Computers, Jawahar Nagar. Behind Co-operative Bank, Rohtak) for meticulous and efficient Computer Typing Work.

(Suman Lata)