Acknowledgement

It gives me immense pleasure to place on records all those who have given their support, guidance and help during the research work presented here. I am deeply indebted to Dr. B.K. Nagla, Professor, Department of Sociology, M.D. University, Rohtak, who inspired and guided me to undertake this research activity. Whenever, I approached him, he readily provided technical guidance, and support, with which I have been able to complete this work.

I am extremely grateful to Prof. M.L. Sharma, Visiting Professor, M.D. University, Rohtak and Prof. T.M. Dak for their guidance and help in the planning of the study. The remarks and suggestions provided by Prof. Khajan Singh Sangwan, Head, Department of Sociology, and other Faculty Members, Prof. S.K Chauhan, Dr. U.K. Avasthi, Dr. Jitender Prasad, Dr. Kanwar Chauhan, Dr. Des Raj, and Post-graduate Students have been extremely useful in moulding this study to its present form. I owe my thanks to Dr. (Mrs.) Madhu Nagla, Lecturer Sociology, Govt. College Rohtak, for her help and suggestions. The support provided by Dr. Ravinder, Reader, Department of Psychology, M.D. University, Rohtak, in designing of study tools is duly acknowledged. I am thankful to the Head and Faculty Members of the Department of Computer Sciences, M.D. University Rohtak for their support in designing of proforma and data processing. The critical remarks by Prof. S.K. Sahu, Department of Community

(ii)
Medicine, JNU, New Delhi, have been the most valuable in giving the final shape to the research work.

I wish to thank all the Medical Officers, other health functionaries and community members, who provided their cooperation without which the study was not possible.

In the end I wish to place on record the support provided by my wife, Mrs. Sangeeta Sood and my children Radhika and Raghav, who have cheerfully borne the brunt of my negligence during the period of research.

(Ajay Kumar Sood)