ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to offer my sincere thanks to all those who helped me either directly or indirectly in conducting this study.

First of all, I wish to acknowledge my deep gratitude to my learned guide and supervisor, Dr. Kailas Sarap, at present, Professor in Economics, Sambalpur University, Burla, Orissa for his constant guidance, continuous encouragement and valuable comments in the course of the study. I can not adequately express in words my feelings of gratitude for his invaluable help and guidance without which it would have been very difficult to complete this work.

I owe my sincere thanks to Dr. Y.S. Dahiya, Dr. S.B. Dahiya, Dr. Surinder Kumar, Dr. S.K. Bedi, Dr. D.C. Vashistha, Dr. A. Rana and all others of the department of Economics, M.D. University, who gave their valuable suggestions from time to time.

It is difficult to mention names of all the respondents included in this study who generously spared their time to provide the data. I am thankful to Mr. Baldev, a law student, Mr. Mahipal Yadav and Naresh Kumar who helped me in conducting my field survey. I am grateful to the library officials of National Archives, New Delhi and Ratan Tats Library, Delhi School of Economics, for rendering liberal help, which made it possible for me to collect my secondary material. I owe my special thanks to the officials of M.D. University library who were always prepared to provide any possible help required.

Last but not the least, my thanks are due to my family members, especially my parents and children, and particularly to my wife Mrs. Sulochana who had to bear a lot during the study period.

Mr. Subhash Gulati (Arora Photostat) deserves appreciation for his excellent typing.
