I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all those who have directly or indirectly helped me in the course of this study. First of all, I would like to express my indebtedness and gratitude to my supervisor, Prof. Dr. S.B. Dahiya, Head, Department of Economics, M.D. University, Rohtak, for his scholarly guidance, constant supervision and encouragement. Throughout the study, he has been a source of inspiration and moral support.

I would like to express my deep appreciation to Prof. Dr. G.K. Suri, Director, Asian Productivity Council, Japan, who has introduced to me the fascinating and dynamic field of collective bargaining. I am very grateful to Dr. Kuriakose Mamkoottam, Faculty of Management, University of Delhi, for his detailed comments, useful suggestions and encouragement in articulating many difficult positions. Early suggestions on problems of field research on collective bargaining from Prof. H.V.V. Chellappa and Prof. Rama Joshi, Shri Ram centre for Industrial Relations and Human Resources proved useful. I am thankful to them both. Principal S.C. Shukla was a constant source of help and inspiration to me. I am thankful to him for his support and encouragement.

I find myself unable to adequately express my gratitude to Sh. R.S. Malik, Commissioner & Secretary, Department of Industries, Haryana and Sh. Zile Singh, Commissioner, Department of Labour, Haryana for their personal interest and for obtaining me the necessary permission for field work from sample companies in Haryana. But for their generous co-operation and help this study would not have been possible. I also express my sincere thanks to Sh. Chet Ram, DY. Labour commissioner, Faridabad, Sh. H.S. Malik, DY. Labour Commissioner, Sonepat, Mr. Ahlawat, Functional Manager, Bahadur Garh, Mr. Ram Murthi Manroa, General Manager, Industries, Gurgaon and their staff, for their help in persuading the concerned Chief executives of sample companies in Haryana to provide me necessary data and information.

I extend my thanks to all the chief executives and managers for providing me necessary data, information and also their valuable time in course of interviews and discussions. I would like to thank specially Mr. I.D.Chug and Mr. Mukesh Sharma from Atlas, Mr. N.K. Sharma, from Bhartia Cutler, Mr. N.C. Jain, Mr. C.M. Mittal and Mr. N.P. Vaish from Birla Textile, Mr. B. Hari Krishna from Britannia, Mr. Deepak Choudhary and Mr. R.K. Proothi from Escorts, Mr. P.P. Mudgal and Mr. Shabbir Merchant from Eicher, Mr. V.K. Mehta from Hindustan National Glass, Mr. J.L. Dhar from Hindustan Sanitary Ware, Mr. C.P. Choudhary from Invel, Mr. R.K. Panda and Mr. J.B. D’cunha from Larsen & Toubro, Mr. Dharam Jit from Lumax, Mr. S.S. Malhotra from SFFI, Mr. Anil Sharma from Sona Steering, Mr. Rankesh Kapur and Mr. Afaque Akhtar from Thomson Press for their cooperation and help during the course of my study.

I also express my sincere thanks to all the union leaders and workers for their generous cooperation and valuable information, though they remain unnamed. Their keen interest in the research study has been a source of inspiration during back-breaking schedule of field work.

I also acknowledge my debt to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for granting me financial assistance for conducting this research.

I am also thankful to the library staff of Shri Ram Centre for Industrial Relations & Human Resources, Ratan Tata, Delhi school of Economics and the Campus Law Centre for their help and cooperation and to Mrs. P.W. Gupta for typing the thesis with personal care.
