ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am immensely indebted to my worthy supervisor Dr. Jagdish Singh, Reader, Department of Mathematics, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak for his invaluable guidance and constant encouragement during the entire period of the present study. With his characteristic patience and valuable suggestions, he helped me affectionately in understanding the problems discussed in the thesis. I am deeply grateful for the pains he took in correcting and improving the manuscript.

I am grateful to Dr. Baljeet Singh Gill, Lecturer, Department of Mathematics, Govt. College, Chandigarh for valuable suggestions and guidance in understanding the problems discussed in the thesis.

I am grateful to Prof. N. R. Garg, Head, Department of Mathematics, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak for providing the facilities in the department during my course of study.

Mere words cannot express my gratitude towards my parents for their blessings and constant efforts to make my life happy and prosperous. My thanks are due to my wife for cooperating and continuously encouraging me in my pursuit.

Finally, I gratefully acknowledge the help provided by the Department of Mathematics during my course of study.

I am also thankful to Sh. Jai Parkash and Mr. Bhupinder Singh for extending timely help during the completion of this thesis.
