APPENDIX-III

1. When did you join the police?
2. Are you proud of the choice of profession?
3. If answer to Question No. 2 above is 'yes', then, please give reasons there of.
4. What is your academic qualification?
5. With the given qualifications, do you feel that you are competent enough to deal with the most sensitive affair of the State and Society i.e., Law and Order?
6. Do you sometimes/usually receive extra-jurisdictional orders from your seniors? If yes, do you decline or carry out such orders?
7. If you see a murder being committed within your sight outside your duty hours, do you do anything to deal with the situation?
8. Are you in favour of application of the so-called "third degree methods" on criminals?
9. Do you think that the politicians interfere too much with the functions of the police?
10. How would you react if you are ordered to fire on a mob?
11. Do you think ruthlessness is the only technique to deal with erring citizens?
12. Please quote the most difficult situation you had come across while on duty?
13. Please cite the most interesting situation you had come across while on duty?

14. Do you think the social system would collapse if the police is disbanded?

15. Formation of a union in police would harm the interests of the State and its non-formation would harm the interests of the police. Do you agree with this statement? If yes, what should be the way out? If not, how these two situations can co-exist?

16. Have you ever taken part in unionist activities? If yes, did you have to face the wrath of the authorities?

17. Have you come across a situation wherein you acted on the verbal orders of your senior(s) and, when, things went wrong the senior(s) has/have denied having passed such verbal orders thereby leaving the entire blame on you?

18. Suppose you have nabbed a notorious person but your senior asks you to let him go. How do you respond to such a situation?

19. Any other comments relating to your uniformed life?