APPENDIX V

1. Do you agree/disagree with the view that police is (mis) used by the political party in power for its personal interests?

2. Do you think the social system would collapse if the police is disbanded?

3. Formation of a union in police would harm the interests of the State and its non-formation would harm the interests of the police. Do you agree with the statement? If yes, what should be the way out? If no, how these two situations can co-exist?

4. Are you satisfied with the present police set up?

5. If answer to Question No. 4 above is "yes", what special merit do you find in the present police set up?

6. If answer to Question No. 5 above is "no", what other model would you suggest?

7. Do you think there is any need to police the police?

8. A continuous affiliation with the criminals has its own bad effects on the police which resultantly booms on the public in general. Do you agree?

9. If your party comes to power/is in power, what reformations would you/do you suggest to revamp the police?

10. The top police functionaries should go with the regime so that new functionaries could be installed by new regime. Do you find this proposal worth consideration?
