Acknowledgement

The consummation of this work would not have been possible had it not been for the invaluable guidance, cooperation and inspiration of a number of people. Thanks giving appears to be very simple, but today I find it the most difficult job and wish had there been some parameter for estimating one's feelings, my work would have been made easier. These humble words, expressions and gratitude cannot really convey the deep feelings of my heart.

Words do not suffice to convey deep sense of respect that I hold for my guide Dr. M.I. Hassan, Reader, Department of Geography M.D. University, Rohtak for his unceasing guidance, painstaking supervision and overwhelming help. I fail to find words to appreciate his deep knowledge of this subject and command over writing skills because of which I have been able to accomplish this attempt successfully.

I would also like to express my gratitude and thanks to Dr. S.H. Ansari, Professor and Head of Department of Geography, M.D. University, Rohtak for his timely advice and constant encouragement.

My sincere thanks are also due to Professor (Mrs.) Nina Singh, the former Head of the Department for providing me basic infrastructure and moral boosting support in my research work. A special mention must be made to Dr. K.V. Chamar, Department of Geography for giving me initial push to use computer in my research work. I also feel highly obliged to Dr. S.K. Bansal, Reader in the Department of Geography for his assistance in various forms.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Preetirekha Daspattanayak, Orissa Education Services, who initiated me to undertake the research work at M. D. University, Rohtak.
I am highly grateful to the University Grants Commission New Delhi that awarded me Teacher Fellowship, for two years to undertake research work at M.D. University, Rohtak. I also express my deep sense of gratitude to the Commissioner Higher Education, Government of Haryana, Chandigarh, who granted me study leave and Registrar, M.D. University, Rohtak who provided me research facilities at the University. I also express my deep thanks to Dr. D.V. Dagar, former Principal, and Sh. H.S. Balhara, the present Principal, Govt. College Jhajjar, who lent me support in availing study leave and without which this work would not have been accomplished.

I cannot forget to pay my profound debt to Prof. K.C. Yadav, famous historian of Haryana and Prof. P.C. Sharma, Department of Hindi, M. D. University, Rohtak, who provided me ample research material concerning the culture of Haryana.

I am indebted to my mother Smt. Vidyawanti for showering endless blessings upon me. I am profoundly grateful to my wife Mrs. Ranjeet Madan, who always provided me with the required emotional strength to cope with the mental strains I experienced during this period. I am deeply indebted to my kids Divya, Srishti and Manav for their endless support in my research work.

I am befallen to all seafarers who cooperated me with their participation in this study.

Last but not least my special thanks are reserved for Mr. Bijender Singh for making my maps and Mr. Raj Kumar Pahwa for neat and clean typing work.

I bow and thank God Almighty for all.
