ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I hereby take this humble opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to all who have encouraged and helped me during the entire course of my research work.

First, I would like to convey my gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Meeta Deka, Associate Professor, Department of History, Gauhati University without whose guidance the research project would not have been completed in stipulated time. It is my privilege to work under such an articulate and pragmatic scholar. I also offer my thanks to all the respected Faculty Members of Department of History, Gauhati University for their support and suggestions.

I extend my gratitude to the authority and staff of the National Library, Kolkata; Indian Museum Library, Kolkata; Centre for Archaeological Studies and Training, Kolkata; Indian Council of Historical Research, North-East Regional Centre, Guwahati and KKH Library, Gauhati University. I am also grateful to the entire staff of the Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati and Kamarupa Anusandhan Samiti, Guwahati for allowing me to consult their archives.

I also convey my heartiest thanks to my departmental colleagues of Pragjyotish College who have supported and co-operated me in many ways throughout the research period. I would like to thank the Librarian and staff of Tirthanath Sarma Library, Pragjyotish College who had provided many rare books which were of immense help.
I take this opportunity to acknowledge the valuable suggestions from Dr. Paromita Das, Associate Professor, Department of History, Gauhati University; Dr. Rajen Saikia, retired HOD, History, Nagaon Girls’ College; Dr. Madhumita Sengupta, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Rani Birla Girl’s College, Kolkata; Dr. Kamal Narayan Patowary, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Barama College and Kisor Kumar Kalita, Writer and Advocate, Guwahati High Court.

Positive encouragement, energetic support and blessings from my parents, family members and friends were the motivating force behind my work. Finally, I am deeply indebted to my husband, Jayanta, for his sustained emotional support throughout this venture and also for his help in the formatting of the thesis. My heartfelt thanks go to my little son, Tilti, for his tender love and cooperation in allowing me to complete my work.
