ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I must offer my respectful thanks to my guide Dr. Rekibuddin Ahmed, Reader & Head of the Department of Persian, Gauhati University, Assam, Guwahati without whose ungrudging help, guidance and inspiration this work would never have been completed. I express my gratefulness to Dr. Painuruddin Ahmed, Senior Lecturer, Cotton College, Guwahati, Assam, who spent most of his time with me in completing this work. I acknowledge with high regards and thanks for their help in lending me some valuable books by Dr. Upala Barua, Department of Anthropology, Cotton College, Guwahati, Miss Farida Begum, Lecturer, Dept. of English, Saraighat College, Md. Baharul Ali, Lecturer, Dept. of Persian, G.U, Dr. Mushleh-Uddin, Babur Ali, Guest Lecturer, G.U, Pranjal Sharma Baishthya, Lecturer, Dept. of MIL, G.U and Mukibur Rahman of North Lakhimpur.

I also extend my gratitude to my respected teachers of the Department of M.I.L (Saraighat College), Department of Persian, Gauhati University, Department of Islamic Studies, Cotton College, Guwahati for their encouragement and inspiration.

For their help and cooperation they extended to me during the period of my study I express my gratitude to the authorities and employees of Krishna Kanta Handique Library, Gauhati University, The Cotton College Library,(Panbazar), Nabin Chandra Bordoli Library, (Panbazar) Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, Saraighat College Library and office bearers of Assam Sahitya Sabha Bhawan concerned. I must offer my sincere thanks to Mrs.Gulap Begum of Nagaon, who had kindly permitted her son to consult the relevant documents of her own office. I am also thankful to Sri Pradip Das and Sri Hementa Kumar Nath (Mohan Da) for their neat typing.

Lastly, I express my indebtedness to my sister Nilima Begum (Poalee) and my friends Manabendra Deka, Rubina, Mitalee Deka (Barpeta), Abul Wadud (Mongoldoi), Rajeb Neog & Abdul Rahim who backed me with all moral encouragements required for the whole study.

(Tafiquar Rahman)

(Tafiquar Rahman)