Is Pargat Singh The Right Choice?

The 20th Nehru Hockey Tournament will be remembered for off-the-field politics as much as for the game itself. With the HIF (White) and BIFC (Red) in action, 32 probables were contesting for the squad of 16 for the Asia Cup in Delhi (from Dec 20–28). All the players were off their toes, as creditably the HIF braintrust made it clear that there were no clearance selections on past reputations. Only current form would count.

National coach M.P. Ganesh also agreed to the change. To his credit he got rid of his mental block that the same set of players should be persisted with and the names' panel was also increased, with the inclusion of M. Kausik and Cedric D'Souza. And the Sports Authority of India (SAI) formed a Core Committee comprising Leslie Chatterjee, M. Somasuya, Dr. Veet Pase, Balbir Singh (Serving), umpire A.N. Rawa and Balkishan Singh (who did not turn up to monitor the coaching). So spheres of influence and talkative tongue prevailed. The selection committee meeting was attended by the HIF President, Mr. P. Prasad, vice-president; Gobhane-Awadhi, Dr. Veet Pase, Major Balbir Singh Dungat and C.P. Jacob (SAI) representation apart from M.P. Ganesh.

Ironically, it was neither a selection panel appointed by the Federation nor approved by the Union Sports Ministry, under the government guidelines. There were many extra members. As per protocol one selection committee should strictly consist of only the HIF president as chairman, the secretary, the chief national coach and a nominee each from the SAI and Sports Ministry.

Yet this botch-patch selection credulously chose a team which gave universal satisfaction.

The choice for captain was supposed to be a foregone conclusion; Pargat Singh, the 26-year-old from HFO, Kaushal's Heptathlete, was the only impedance. Pargat showed his irresistible temper in the closing stages of the final.

HIF White were trailing 1–4. Pargat moved but was accidentally struck by HIF (Red) substitute Vijay Kular. In a flash Pargat retaliated with a raised stick. Umpire Rawa had no choice but to show

Edgar Mascarenhas
Penalty-corner expert.
Jagdev Singh is an India junior international and was in the reckoning ever since M.P. Singh retired. The HIF braintrust preferred him to Mohammed Arif, because of his penalty-corner prowess.

The other three players were selected on sheer performance. Left-half Arti Lakra (Serving) kept out the fearless Shakeel Ahmed from the Indian team. Lakra's tackling is sound, temperament phlegmatic and distribution safe. He will soon be challenging India's maestro Sjit Kumar and Subramani for the left or right half berth.

Bombay's Dhahanji Pillay and Edgar Mascarenhas confirmed their machine simply revealed in the Owalior Nationals. Pillay, a bustling and speedy winger, can play a moving game essential in modern hockey. He beats man-to-man marking by his sheer speed and dribbling game. Assistant coach Cedric D'Souza rightly praised Edgar for his work rate and vision. His passing and understanding of the game is perfect. It's a pity, Lakra and Edgar Mascarenhas are playing for an Indian team at any level for the first time.

MEANWHILE, six players have been dropped from the Indian squad, which participated in the Champions and World Cup qualifying tournament this summer. They are M.P. Singh (retired), goalkeeper A.B. Subbiah, wingers Viral Chanteppe and Mukesh Kumar, midfielder Atuldas, full-back Kalliyappan and utility forward Surjeet

"Indian hockey has at last followed a system, keeping two national teams has helped. Senior players are now more cautious and on their toes"—Kaushik

Kumar, Kudasit and Tarjees did not figure in the promised list of 33 probables, selected after the initial camp at Bangalore.

The comeback of Mark Paterson has led to doubt (being capped). Paterson has seen the best of times and worst of times. Proudly the three-headed Kusan was branded as the 'saviour of Indian hockey'. Then he fell from grace. Now he's back as the No. 1 goalkeeper in the Indian team. A more mature player, Paterson is in the best of health under press among a new bunch of Indian custodians. Also has improved against penalty corners and penalty strokes is reliable.

Mukesh Kumar has ruled this year by Ganesh as an exciting prospect and a near-world-class player has been omitted due to a groin injury. He will be considered for the World Cup. Vuisse-Clairpool showed a lot of versatility and speed and was unlucky to be omitted. Arif has a slightly suspect against forward wanting defenders and notably the more versatile Edgar Mascarenhas has been However, Kaushik is certain that Prashant Singh will go far. He thinks that he will be given a better chance than his brother, the phlegmatic Vivek Singh, currently playing for India in that position. Their father, Gauri Shanker Singh, was also a renowned centre half in his days. He was called for India trials and played for UP state for several years. Since his childhood, Prashant Singh has been coached by his father, a theology teacher at Uttar Pradesh College. Varanasi. "Ever since I remember, I have been playing hockey. My father gave me a stick when I was a toddler."

Since 1984, Prashant Singh has been studying at the Sports College, Lucknow. He is diligent in his practice. He trains on his own for about thirty minutes daily. Prashant candidly admits that he has a lot to learn. "I have to improve my tackling and interception, learn how to use the accepted pass and increase my speed and stamina. I hope to improve my physique also, as a good physique is a drawback."

Prashant Singh was selected for the Four Nations tournament at Barcelona on sheer potential. However, when given a chance, he is determined to live up to his promise. He a centre half in the Ajanta Singh mould, calm, cool and calculated, spraying subtle angles and through passes to set forwards. His movements are a joy to behold. His shot is his brother Vivek Singh.

The way Prashant is developing in the 1990s, there could come a period in which two brothers competing for the vital centre half position in the Indian team.

Prashant Singh wants to continue his studies. He is a B.A. Ist year student. He has already offered from SPCG and State Bank of India. However, he only wants to spend his own money as he wants to become a graduate. Prashant may well join Indian hockey team soon of the Billinton Cup and a number of Indian hockey players at present. Remember Ardith and Mohammed and have all emerged from SPCG. Now it could be the turn of the Sajeds and promising Prashant Singh.

"His deceptive hand movements, subtle passing, stickwork and trapping show that he is a player of the highest potential," Ex Olympian M.K. Kaushik
There were doubts as the Indian Probables started their campaign in the 26th edition of the Jawaharlal Nehru Hockey Tournament in the end those doubts were alleviated as the two Indian Hockey Federation (IHF) teams clashed in the final. Perhaps in terms of achievement it meant little. After all the National probables cannot but be expected to win a tournament of this nature. However, viewed in the gloomy background of the past summer nothing could have been taken for granted.

On that count alone the National coach, M. P. Dinesh, can derive satisfaction after the Nehru tournament venture by the probables. It was a different matter that the Int Whites, the senior of the two teams, did not happen to be the champion. That distinction went to the Blacks, a combination of young hopefuls.

The immediate necessity was to provide the probables the much-needed exposure but less-structured match practice prior to the Asia Cup which was to be staged at the very same Ghaziabad Stadium in less than a fortnight from the start of the tournament. The exposure also helped the National coach fix his assistant and the selectors in training the team for the Asia Cup.

IHIF out of touch with reality

IHF today took a step towards promoting women's hockey in the country by taking three steps back. President V. K. Kaushik, who took office as the national hockey, is an unprecedented move by the IHF to avoid the optics of the Indian women's hockey team. IHF president V. K. Kaushik today announced that the next national coach for the women's hockey team will be Bhavani Devi, who has been selected from among the 51 probables named by the IHF.

Kaushik to bank on senior players

NEW DELHI: Mahendra Kaushik, the new Chief national coach of hockey, on Wednesday declared that he is planning to groom everybody playing in the Indian National Hockey team and would encourage them to be a part of the future Indian hockey team.

"I want to give each player a chance to prove themselves in the team," Kaushik said.

He also added that the team will have a balanced mix of experienced and young players.

Kaushik further said that he believes in giving equal opportunities to all players based on their performance.

He also emphasized the importance of having a strong management team to support the players and ensure they are ready to face any challenge.

Kaushik also highlighted the need for a strong support system, both on and off the field, to help the players perform at their best.

He added that the team will continue to work hard to achieve their goals and become the best in the world.

Kaushik's statement was welcomed by the players, who expressed their determination to work hard and help the team achieve success.

NEW DELHI: Makeup of Khaleel Kaushik, having played for India in the right back in some important matches in the last 70s and 80s, is seen by a retired man as more than two years after his appearance in the Olympic games. What is unique about Khaleel is his selflessness or sacrifice, which he continues to be a sportsperson and wants to continue to be a sportsperson. Those who want to have a look at the India team, which will be in the Olympic games, will want to have a look at the India team, which will be the team to watch in the Olympic games.

Don't think the time has come to prepare the team for the Commonwealth Games. At the international level, only strategic changes can be done. Khaleel doesn't want the change of players. Presently, his focus will be on fitness and improving the mindset of the players among the seniors and juniors, which he believes will be the foundation for the team's future.

You can't think that the style of play from the first team will not change. The style of play from the India team will not change. The style of play from the India team will remain the same. Khaleel's biggest concern is the lack of understanding between the players and the coach. It's the scheme of things that will come into consideration.

What in your opinion can help the coach's selection?

"It's a difficult task to select the team," Khaleel said. "But we need to be more careful and give good support to the players."

How do you plan to tackle the problem of poor rate of performance improvement?

I would advise the coach to take care of the team's fitness and nutrition. The coach should take care of the team's fitness and nutrition. The coach should take care of the team's fitness and nutrition. The coach should take care of the team's fitness and nutrition. The coach should take care of the team's fitness and nutrition.

Kaushik replaces Baskaran

Kaushik: New responsibility

Kaushik, the former National women's team coach and Mumbai right-winger, will be in charge up to the Asian Games, and his fate, thereafter, is anybody's guess. For the moment, Kaushik has been saddled with as many as 51 probables.

Kaushik appeared bewildered when told of his appointment. He was reluctant to meet mediapersons and kept repeating: "How can I talk to you guys when I have not been told of my appointment." It was virtually a repeat of the 1997 drama when Pargat Singh was appointed without even being consulted in the first place.

Asked about his approach to the assignment, the 43-year-old Delhi-based Deputy Director (Hockey), Haryana Government, said: "It is a challenging job. I will be firm on fitness and only those ill will be shown. As the Utrecht World Cup, I noticed several players who were unfit." By Kaushik said he would stick to "old tactics" in view of the paucity of time and admitted that the team needed to break up on penalty corner conventions.

Meanwhile, C. R. Kumar, who, along with Ramash assisted Baskaran at Utrecht, was named the coach of the "developmental team" which will take part in the four-nation tournament at Hamburg, in August.

I have made history by captaining the team (below) that won the Asian Games after 32 years. There are some players who are jealous of me.

What are your prospects in the Sydney Olympics?

On winning the gold, I was happy to play about for Sydney, but my plans are not clear. My first goal was to come out of retirement and then play just once.

Our team is bright and full of promising players. They can win the upcoming gold medal for the Indian hockey team.

There are a future star in our team who can win the Asian Games gold medal at the upcoming 2023 tournament. Our main target is to achieve the best performance, and we will do our best to achieve it.

Should sportsmen be part of the management?

Not necessarily. I'm a professional hockey player and have worked hard to get to this position. I believe that the management should be professional and dedicated.

I want to say that the sportsmen should be rewarded for their efforts, and the team's management should always support their players.

What are the plans now when Mahindra have stopped playing hockey?

Team spirit, fitness top priorities: Kaushik

NEW ZEALAND, July 20 - PTI

New Zealand's Kaushik Bhatia, who is a huge fan of cricket, believes that team spirit and fitness are the top priorities for any team in cricket.

"Team spirit is the backbone of any team," he said. "Without it, you can't pull the team back after a tough loss. Fitness is equally important as it ensures that players can play their best throughout the tournament."

Bhatia, who has been a part of the Indian team for the past few years, said that he has always been vocal about the importance of fitness in cricket.

"Fitness is not just about running around the ground," he added. "It's about having the stamina to play for 90 minutes in the field and the energy to hit the ball hard."

IHF must utilise veterans’ experience for team building

By N. Pragnajay

From the last week’s tournament it is a matter of fact that the Indian hockey team is in a bad state. The players are not performing as expected. The team has not shown any signs of improvement in recent tournaments. The players are lacking in confidence and are not performing as they should.

The Indian hockey team has traditionally been a strong team and has produced some of the best players in the world. However, with the decline in performance, there is a need to look into the reasons for this decline.

One of the main reasons for the decline in performance is the lack of experience among the players. The Indian hockey team has a lot of young players who are yet to gain experience in international tournaments.

Another reason is the lack of proper preparation. The team has not been given enough time to prepare properly for the upcoming tournaments.

In order to improve the performance of the team, there is a need to focus on the following:

1. Experience: The team should utilise the experience of the veterans to improve the performance of the young players. The veterans can share their knowledge and experience with the young players and help them improve their skills.

2. Preparation: The team should focus on proper preparation for the upcoming tournaments. The players should be given enough time to prepare for the tournaments and should be given proper training.

3. Confidence: The players should be given enough confidence to perform well in the tournaments. The coaching staff should work on improving the confidence of the players.

In conclusion, the Indian hockey team needs to utilise the experience of the veterans and focus on proper preparation and confidence to improve its performance in the upcoming tournaments.

Lukewarm response to Asian under-16 tournament

By Abhijit Sen Gupta

MUMBAI, July 25.

The ongoing 4th Asian under-16 football tournament's Group B competition which was being held at the R. Balachandran stadium here has run out with a lukewarm response from the fans.

This is not an unexpected development for in the past a similar trend has prevailed. Despite the presence of big teams such as Mohammedan Sporting, BIG and Punjab Police playing the Nazim Gold Cup a few years ago in Punjab and BIF in the Extra Black Label tournament last year, not many people turned up to watch the matches.

It was believed that matches conducted under floodlights would prove to be a big attraction. When the lights were finally put up in 1988 and the Far Eastern tournament was conducted here, a similar belief did not last for long despite the number of spectators steadily dwindled and even some are back to square one. Clearly it will take more than floodlighting to bring in the crowd.

In this case, all those who were interested in football matches no longer bothered to come.

In order to give these the wider choice possible under the floodlights, even an attempt was made to attract new fans to the game. But all these efforts were in vain as none of the matches was a success.

The standard of Indian football fans were a story in itself. The QM, who were the hosts, seemed more interested in attracting the crowd. They did not have any solid base for following the matches in the first place. Most of the spectators were just there for the show.

The only attraction was the music of Shahid, Vishal and Shekhar, who performed at the end of the matches. But even here, the crowd was not very enthusiastic.

Honours even at Trent I

By Ted Corbett

MUMBAI, July 25.

Mark Reynolds put the gloom back at Trent Bridge on Saturday with his superb 79 not out against Worcestershire, which helped Leicestershire to a fine win by five wickets against the visitors.

The win, which came after qualification for the one-day cup, means that Leicestershire now have a chance of qualifying for the one-day cup and possibly the Twenty20 competition as well.

Tea was taken at 4.00 pm with the match still in a state of play.

Leicestershire made 159 for six in their 40 overs, with Reynolds hitting 10 sixes in a fine innings.

Worceshtire, bowling with the same attack, were bowled out for 144 in 40 overs, with Andy Crammer scoring 55 not out as they were routed by Leicestershire.

Leicestershire's total was enough to win the match, and Reynolds was named Man of the Match.
