Acknowledgement

This long cherished dream of mine wouldn’t have seen this day of light without the enormous cooperation and colossal support of so many persons whom I will remain forever indebted.

At this ecstatic time of presenting my thesis, I find myself unable to elucidate in words my genial feelings of indebtedness and unfeigned gratefulness to my esteemed teacher and guide, Prof. Indira Dhull, Head and Dean, Faculty of Education, M.D. University, Rohtak for her constructive and ever available guidance, incessant inspiration and valuable suggestions at all the stages of this research work. I am reminded of Jonathan Swift’s feeling about a pedagogue – “She has the vision which is the art of seeing things which are invisible”. I find myself highly fortunate and gratefully privileged to have worked under her supervision because her enlightening storehouse of vast knowledge, farsightedness, eloquence and above all mastery over the subject inspired me throughout my way to complete this challenging task.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Radhey Shyam Professor, Department of Psychology, M. D. University, Rohtak, whose unhesitating support and incisive comments have helped me a great deal.

I am extremely grateful to my Aunt Mrs. Raaj Gaur, (Retd.) Undersecretary to Government of Haryana, whose valuable help, not only reinforced, motivated me but put me on cloud nine in my research work.

I would like to thank the library staff of M.D. University for their cooperation in providing me all available reading material.

All my subjects have a special place and regard in my heart for their invaluable support and help and specially Principals, students and teachers of senior secondary schools, whose enthusiasm, zeal and interest reinforced me in my data collection phase.
Words should be inadequate to convey my deep sense of gratitude to my in-laws – Late Sh. Tulsi Das Sachdeva and Late Smt. Ram Pyari Sadhdeva, my parents Sh. Raj Raman Nirmohi and Smt. Krishna Kumari without whose blessings, I could not have completed my research work. They have been a constant source of inspiration to boost my moral in my academic pursuits. Their affection and blessings have been the real pillars of my confidence.

I do feel proud while mentioning the name of my husband Mr. Lalit Bhushan who constantly encouraged and motivated me to see this work a reality. He stood as a lamppost and showed me the path and made it easy to do this research work. I just don’t have enough and proper words to thank him for everything. The forbearance of my son Mr. Aparajit in bringing me at this apex is praiseworthy.

I express my thanks to my friend Mrs. Sangeeta Sharma who have inspired and helped me during this period.

Last but not least my special thanks are reserved for Mr. Raj Kumar Pahwa and Mr. Jayant Khutale (SS Computer) Rohtak for neat and clean typing work.

I bow and thank God Almighty for everything.
