It has been my great curiosity since childhood to know about space which is the 'Final Frontier' for mankind. It has always been my endeavour to know more about space. With inspiration and encouragement of my parents, family members and friends I have persevered to study space and with the support and encouragement of my able guide I have concluded the thesis work of my Ph.D. course. I am thankful to all of them whose great inspiration and support has helped me to complete the job.

I would specially like to take the privilege to express my heartfelt and sincerest thanks to my guide Dr. (Mrs) Chandra Rekha Mahanta, without whose relentless guidance and advice I would not have been able to complete my Ph.D. work. I am really very thankful to her. Her kind attitude and immense encouragement has enabled me to complete the Ph.D. course. I am ever grateful to her and hope for her blessings to enable me to succeed in my life.

I would like to express my gratitude to Professor K. D. Krori, for his valuable inputs, suggestions and affectionate attitude.

I would also like to express my gratitude to Prof. R. Choudhury (Head of the Department), Prof. B. C. Kalita, Prof. H. K. Saikia, Prof. N. R. Das, Prof. K. C. Chowdhury, Dr. K. Das of Mathematics Department of Gauhati University for giving me the required motivation, inspiration and information during the period my research work.

I am deeply indebted to Mr. R. K. Rajbanshi of Central library of IIT-G and Mrs Rajbanshi (Lautfa Hanum Salima Begum of Cotton College Guwahati) for their valuable help and support in my research work. Without their encouragement, I could not have completed my thesis work.

I would also like to convey my thanks to all my friends and all the members of IIT-G Central Library. Special and heartiest thanks are due to my friends Biswajit Debnath, Rupam Nath and Niroj Barua.

Special thanks are also due for my well-wisher Aparna and her mother Mira Biswas who have encouraged me a lot to start my research work after I had completed my Master Degree. Thanks to Imon, Anupriya, Erika for giving me so much mental support during this trying period; and also to Kutai, Ishan, Pritom and Prerona for their help.

My parents have been my best mentors, preparing me for life in its various aspects. There are no words to express my gratitude for all the selfless efforts they made. They always encouraged me to follow my desired path, though it led far from where it began. I thank my sisters, brothers-in-law and other relatives for their love and encouragement, especially in difficult times.

Last but not the least; I would like to thank all those who have directly or indirectly helped me during this period.
