Contents

| Declaration                          | i        |
| Certificate of Guide                | ii       |
| Preface                             | iii-v    |
| Acknowledgement                     | vi       |

CHAPTER - 1: Introduction 1-14

1.1: Importance of the subject
1.2: List of works already done on the novels of Nagarjun
1.3: The scope of the study
1.4: The method of the study
1.5: Preparation of study materials

CHAPTER - 2: Nagarjun- Personality and Fame 15-42

2.1: His birth and childhood
2.2: His education, married life and livelihood
2.3: His yayavari (wandering) life and conversion to Buddhism
2.4: His role in Peasant Uprising
2.5: His literary works
2.6: Literary honours and awards received by him
2.7: His philosophy of life
2.8: His death

CHAPTER - 3: Novelists Depicting Village Life in Hindi Novels and Nagarjun 43-71

3.1: Village life and Hindi novelists
3.1.1: Novelists dealing with social consciousness
3.1.2: Novelists dealing with economic consciousness
3.1.3: Novelists dealing with political consciousness
3.1.4: Novelists dealing with religious consciousness
3.2: Village life in Nagarjun’s novels
CHAPTER - 4: Social Problem

4.1: Problems related to marriage
4.1.1: Anmel Vivah (Dissimilar marriage)
4.1.2: Jarath Vivah (Old marriage)
4.1.3: Antarjatia Vivah (Inter-caste marriage) and 4.1.4: Bal Vivah (Child marriage)
4.2: Problems related to womenfolk
4.2.1: Polygamy
4.2.2: Dowry system
4.2.3: Problems of widowhood
4.2.4: Problems of prostitution
4.2.5: Rape and sexual harassment and
4.2.6: Illiteracy of women
4.3: Other social problems
4.3.1: Casteism
4.3.2: Immorality
4.3.3: Primacy of males
4.3.4: Family problem
4.3.5: Domestic violence and
4.3.6: Problem of the old or senior people

CHAPTER - 5: Economic Problem

5.1: Cause of economic problem
5.1.1: Manmade cause
5.1.1.1: Exploitation
5.1.1.2: Illiteracy
5.1.1.3: Rise of population
5.1.1.4: Bribery.
5.1.2: Political cause
5.1.2.1: Land problem
5.1.2.2: Corruption
5.1.2.3: Unemployment
5.1.2.4: Fraudulence
5.1.2.5: Communication system
5.1.3: Natural cause
5.1.3.1: Earthquake
5.1.3.2: Flood
5.1.3.3: Famine
5.1.3.4: Disease
5.2: Economic source:
5.2.01: Cultivation
5.2.02: Wages for cultivation
5.2.03: Animal husbandry
5.2.04: Labour err in the industries, factories etc.
5.2.05: Human trafficking
5.2.06: Labourer in the towns
5.2.07: Working as household helps
5.2.08: Working as musician and sculptor etc.
5.2.09: Priesthood
5.2.10: Government Grants
5.2.11: Miscellaneous

CHAPTER - 6: Political Problem 149-183

6.01: British principles of dominance
6.02: The Freedom Movement and its weakness
6.03: Oppression of the zamindars
6.04: Peasant Uprising
6.05: Abolition of the Zamindary System
6.06: Class struggle
6.07: Encroachment
6.08: Corruption
6.09: Bribery
6.10: Hooliganism
6.11: Weakness of administrative and judicial system
6.12: Selfishness of Congress Party
6.13: Shattering of dreams
6.14: Socialistic ideology and its weakness

CHAPTER - 7: Religious Problem

7.01: Rituals
7.02: Worshipping of Gods and Goddesses
7.03: Belief in spirits
7.04: Sacrifice of human beings and animals
7.05: Offering to Gods in the hope of fulfilling wishes
7.06: Belief in tantra and mantra
7.07: Superstitions
7.08: Customs-traditions and blind faith
7.09: Fraudulent sadhus (saints)
7.10: Casteism
7.11: Untouchability
7.12: Influence of religion on Medical Science and 7.13: Atheism

CHAPTER - 8: Conclusion 220-228

BIBLIOGRAPHY 229-235