Acknowledgement

The writing of this thesis has been the most challenging work that I have ever had to face. It would be impossible for me to complete the thesis without the help and encouragement of some persons to whom I owe a lot. First of all I would like to offer my humble gratitude to Almighty Lord and to my parents for giving the strength to face and overcome the entire hurdles encountered during the study and enable me to complete the study successfully.

This work would not have been possible without the guidance, support and encouragement of my guide Dr. Nilima Bhagabati, Professor, Department of Education, Gauhati University, a person with an amicable and positive disposition. Madam has always made herself available to clarify my doubts in spite of her busy schedule and I believe it as a great opportunity to do my doctoral programme under her guidance and learn from her research expertise.

I gratefully acknowledge to Prof. J.S Swargiary, HOD, Department of Education, Gauhati University and all my teachers of Department of Education, Gauhati University for their valuable advice, constructive criticism and extensive discussions around my work.

I am very much indebted to the authorities of Krishna Kanta Hadiqui State Open Univeristy for allowing me and lending me all the necessary help and facilities to pursue my Ph.D. work.
I am indebted to my parents for their blessings and support which I won’t be able to repay in my entire life. I am grateful to my elder sister Swarnali Pathak and brother in law Neel Kamal Kalita for their utmost support.

I would also like to extend huge and warm regards to my friends Afzalur, Anul, Pallavi, Chayanika, Levis and Devajani Baa for their valuable help and support. I am also thankful to all the non-teaching staffs of department of Education, Gauhati University for their instant help whenever needed.

I am very much grateful to the Principals and Teachers of all the sampled schools from whom I have collected the necessary data and information for my research work, for giving me their valuable time and helping me without any hesitation.

Last but not least, I thank all the well wishers, dears and nears, who helped me either directly or indirectly in completing this work.
