ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my honest duty to express my deep sense of gratitude and a cheerful thanks to my guide Dr. Pradip Sharma, Associate Professor, Department of Geography, Cotton College Guwahati who left no stone unturned to help, co-operate, encourage and advice from the thinking about the research work to complete it. It could not have been possible to complete this work without his inspiration, guidance and suggestion throughout the course of the field study and in preparing this thesis.

I received help and co-operation from a number of persons and departments without the selfless support of whom this research work would have not been possible. I recall with a sense of gratitude the support received from Mr. Jagat Gogoi, Soil Conservation Department, Zoo Road; Mr. Dhojen Das, Pollution Control Bord, Mr. P. Baruah, Ms. Runjun Gogoi, Ms. Runjun Hazarika and Mr. Arun Jyoti Sharma of ARSAC.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Zoii Nath Sarmah, President of Dr. Anita Baruah Sarmah College of Education, Prof. Mrs. Lahari Das, Former HoD, Education Department, Cotton College, Guwahati and Ex-Principal of Dr. ABS College of Education for encouraging and allowing me to do the research work smoothly.

I am also thankful to Mrigen, Mahan, Pranab da, Deba da, Swarup da, Banajyoti and Ronald for helping me at the time of data collection.

A special thanks is offered to Mr. Dhanjit Deka for helping me in preparing the maps and diagrams for the research works.
I also offer my cheerful thanks to my husband Mr. Keshob Krishna Gogoi for helping me by giving moral support, help and co-operation in every steps of work specially at the time of typing the thesis and designing it so nicely.

I reserve a word of appreciation and gratitude for all those countless individuals and institutions who have directly or indirectly contributed toward my research work.

Last but not the least I am very much thankful to my father in law, mother in law, my mother and my son Aayan and daughter Noyonika for encouraging me, helping and cooperating in every step of my research work.
