ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express my heartiest gratitude to my respected supervisor Prof. Sujata Purkayastha, Head of the Department of Sanskrit, Gauhati University, for suggesting me the topic of the present dissertation and also for her able guidance, keen and sustained interest evinced during the study and preparation of the present work.

My sincere thanks are due to the galaxy of learned teachers of the Department of Sanskrit, Gauhati University, for their kind help and suggestion in connection with the present work. I extend my sincere thanks to all the staff members of Bajali College, Pathsala, for their encouragement and kind help during the period of my study.

I am grateful to my colleague Arup Bharali M.Sc. (Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Physics, Bajali College, Pathsala), who has inspired and helped me all through my research.

I shall remain ever grateful to Sri Utpal Barkakati M.A., (teacher of English in Pathsala Sikshapith Adarsa Buniyadi High School, Pathsala), for his inspiration in undertaking the present work and kind help all throughout the present study.

My sincere gratitude goes to my father, Late. Mahodar Deva Sarma, (District Adult Education officer) and my mother, Late. Kamini Devi. Their remembrance is always an inspiration for me.

I express my deep sense of indebtedness to my husband Sri Prabir Kumar Deva Sarma, M. A., (teacher of Hindi in Pathsala Sikshapith Adarsa Buniyadi High School, Pathsala), who has been chief inspector in my study. His co-operation, invaluable suggestions and continuous encouragement have made it possible to complete the dissertation.

I sincerely acknowledge my gratitude to my father-in-law, mother-in-law and other family members who took so much of pain for me. I must make a special mention of my little sons, Alingan and Jonak Akash, who have been a source of supreme inspiration and reassurance whenever I would be enshrouded by a pall of despair during the course of my study.

I also thank the authorities and staff members of the K.K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, the Seminar Library, Sanskrit Department, Gauhati University, the National Library, Kolkata, and the Kameswar Das Library, Bajali College, Pathsala for permitting me to make use of the materials needed in course of my investigation.

I heartily acknowledge the help received from Gagan Sarma, Jiten Kakoti and Saroj Choudhury, who took so much trouble in computer typing the dissertation carefully and in due time.

Place: Pathsala
Date: 25.5.2012

(Rashmi Devi)