Acknowledgement

It is my great pleasure to acknowledge the immense help, cooperation and guidance that I have received from various persons and institutions during the whole process of this research study.

First of all, I would like to offer my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Archana Sharma. This research work would not have been completed without her guidance and inspiration. Her extensive support is an invaluable blessing not only in every step of this research work but also on my personal life. She has always been ready to offer her suggestions in every issue of the study.

I would also like to express my gratitude to the Head and all the Faculty Members of the Department of Economics, Gauhati University for their support and valuable suggestions.

I also thank all the staffs of the Department of Economics, Gauhati University for their help during my research work.

During the course of the study I have visited several libraries for collecting materials which include K.K. Handiqui Library of Gauhati University, Women’s Studies Research Centre Library of Gauhati University, National Labour Institute Library of V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, Noida, Library of OKDISCD, Guwahati, Library of Directorate of Economics and Statistics, Assam, Library of Indian Institute of Entrepreneurship, Guwahati, and Library of Chhaygaon College, Kamrup. I offer my special thanks to all the staffs of these libraries.
I extend my special thanks to P. K. Bhattacharjya, Director of Economics and Statistics, Assam for his inspiration and co-operation.

I offer my gratitude to W. S. Dev Nath, Librarian and Coordinator SG, KKHL, Gauhati University for screening my thesis through anti-plagiarism software and providing me similarity report.

I take this opportunity to extend my sincere gratitude to Prof. Anoop Satpathy and Prof. Babu P. Ramesh among others who helped me enough to build my research base through their lectures during the Research Methodology Course on Labour in V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, Noida.

I am thankful enough to Indian Council of Social Science Research for awarding me short term Doctoral Fellowship which was very helpful in completing my field work.

I wish to thank Dr. Raju Bordoloi, Principal and Dr. Ismatun Nessa, Vice Principal, Chhaygaon College for their kind cooperation in the completion of my research work. I also extend my heartiest thanks to all my colleague in Chhaygaon College for their constant inspiration.

I specially thank my students Manika, Kamal, Ajanta, Kamallochan, Tankeswar, Indubhusan, Kanika, Anjali, Preeti, Anamika and Ranjita for their help in the field survey.

I must thank all the respondents as well as their family members who have helped me providing necessary information in my field survey.
I am happy enough to offer my gratitude to my husband Sri Ramen Kalita, who helped and support me in the whole process of this research work. This thesis would not have been possible without his support.

I also express my thanks to Marami who looked after me and my family during the course of this research study. Moreover, this thesis would not have been possible without the understanding of my little twin son Pragyan and Prachurya.

Finally, it is my great satisfaction to thank all those who have helped me directly or indirectly in the completion of this thesis.
