ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This is my privilege to offer gratitude to him who, despite his paucity of time has properly supervised and guided me in performing this research work constantly during last three years. He is Dr. Bhaben. Ch. Kalita, Head, Dept. of Geography, Cotton College, Guwahati.

I am highly grateful to my teachers, Dr. Mohammed Taher, retired Professor, Dept. of Geography, Gauhati University; Dr. Ranjan Saikia, retired Head, Dept. of Geography, Cotton College, Guwahati and Dr. R. B. Singh, Dept. of Geography, Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi for their encouragement and valuable suggestion in doing the research work smoothly. I am grateful to the Principal of Diphu Govt. College, Diphu, Assam too, who has given me the opportunity to undertake the research work by granting permission and all.

I must be thankful to all the people of various governmental and semi-governmental departments/offices for providing me required information and other necessary documents. Amongst them are Ruben Ronghang (Deputy Director), Kamala Kanta Hazarika and Jogeswar Kharikap of Town and Country Planning Department, Diphu; Padma Nath Borah of Dept. of Economics and Statistics, Diphu; Nipu Charan Dutta and Pradip Rongpi of Diphu Town Committee; Dr. Girindra Nath Das, District Research Officer, Karbi Anglong, Diphu; Azijul Hussain, Principal, Rangsina Junior College, Dongkamukam; Deben Saikia, Principal, Rangsina College, Dongkamukam; Kameswar Malakar of Haniren H. S. School; Himadri Deb of Haflong Town Committee; Bidul Baruah of P.W.D., Diphu; and Dinesh Patgiri of Forest Department, Diphu.

Mr. Prasanna Baruah of Assam Remote Sensing Application Centre (ASTEC), Guwahati is one of my well-wishers without whose help it would have been impossible to make GIS-based analysis of the research study. He deserves the right to receive my special thanks.
I highly acknowledge the names of Dr. Nirab Kr. Sarmah, Dept. of Chemistry, Diphu Govt. College, Diphu, and Prakash Barman, Dept. of Physics, Tezpur University, Tezpur for their help and co-operation at various moments.

I am indebted to Pran Kumar Dutta and Debashis Dutta of Hills Photo Studio, Diphu for providing me old and rare photographs of Diphu town. I never forget the help of Basanta Das, a renowned writer in looking back to the history of Diphu town.

I am thankful to my students, Harishankar Chakraborty, Dipmoni Sharma, Moniruddin Ahmed, Khor Sing Terang, Saftazar Tisso, Kamrul Islam Choudhury, Jayanta Das Gupta, Hironmoy Chanda, Sudip Sur, Dilip Kathar, Bonsam Kathar, Ronjit Bhengra, Kheno Rengma, and others who helped me during field works.

I sincerely acknowledge Dr. L. Dutta, Dr. A. K. Bhagabati and Dr. A. K. Bora, Dept. of Geography, Gauhati University, and Dr. J. Borah, Dept. of Geography, Cotton College, Guwahati for their valuable advice and kind co-operation in various respects.

I am also thankful to all those who have kindly advised me to remove some shortcomings in the presentation of the results of the work.

I am very much thankful to all the respondents from whom I obtained my required field information for the accomplishment of this research work.

My last but not least thanks go to my brother Biju Gogoi (Bhai) and my wife Manika Deka Gogoi without whose continuous inspiration and assistance it would have been difficult to complete this research work in time.
