ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is always a pleasant experience to remember those who rendered necessary help, guidance and encouragement in the hour of need.

At the very outset, I owe my indebtedness to my Supervisor Professor (Dr.) Lutfun Rasul Saikia, Department of Education, Gauhati University, Guwahati, for her untiring guidance, encouragement and sympathetic support throughout the work. It is through her help, resourceful and sincere efforts that the completion of this thesis has been possible.

My sincere thanks and gratitude goes to Prof. Gayatree Goswamee; Head, Department of Education, Gauhati University and all faculty members of Education Department for their useful suggestions and guidance at the time of need.

My gratitude is also extended to the Headmasters, teachers and students of respective schools for their active cooperation at the stage of data collection.

I sincerely acknowledge the help received from the officials of the K.K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, Guwahati, OKDISCD Guwahati; National Psychological Corporation, Agra, during the preparation of the present work.

I shall remain grateful to my wife, parents, relatives and colleagues for their kind inspiration and encouragement from time to time during the preparation of my work.

Finally, I gratefully acknowledge the generous help offered by persons and organizations whose kind cooperation have powerful impact in successful completion of the work.
