'Tasmai śrī gurave namah' (Salutation to my teacher) with these words, at first I tender my heartfelt regards and cordial thanks to my respected teacher and guide Prof. Shrutidhara Chakravarty, M. A., Ph. D., Prof., Department of Sanskrit, Gauhati University, Assam, for her guidance and all possible supports. This thesis has taken its final shape due to her constant supervision and encouragement. My words fail to express my deep sense of gratitude to my parents, who have sprinkled their blessings, care and affection all throughout my academic and professional career.

I have consulted various libraries like National library, Calcutta; K. K. Handique library of Gauhati University; Dr. Surya Kumar Bhuyan library of Cotton College, Guwahati; Shewnarain Tantia library of Bholanath College, Dhubri; District library of Dhubri, etc.; procured books and journals from various publishing houses and accessed to various digital libraries and e-books through internet and last but not least the personal library of my father, Sri Dinabandhu Bhattacharjee, has helped me a lot to enrich the content of this thesis. The continuous support of my family members, especially my younger sister, Shashwati and brother Manas is laudable.

I acknowledge my heartfelt regards and thanks to my teachers, the honourable members of the Research Committee of Sanskrit Department, Gauhati University, the Principal, Bholanath College, Dhubri, Ex. H. O. D. of Sanskrit, B. N. College, Sri Atul Chandra Sarma, all my colleagues and friends, who have encouraged me in preparing this thesis. Lastly, I convey my sincere thanks to all those persons, specially the press and the binders who have directly and indirectly extended their help in this endeavour to complete this thesis within stipulated time.

Mausumi Bhattacharjee
(Mausumi Bhattacharjee)
11.06.2012.