

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words can hardly substitute the immense depth of gratitude and indebtedness that I owe to my guide Dr. H. Surya Prakash Rao, Professor, Department of Chemistry, Pondicherry University for inducting me into the realm of innovative and interesting field of Synthesis and Stereochemistry. I also express my deep sense of gratitude to him for valuable guidance, constant encouragement and constructive criticism during course of this investigation. I remain grateful to him for his patience during my initial learning period and for his tremendous support which helped me to grow as a young organic chemistry researcher. I consider myself privileged to have him as my research supervisor.

- I sincerely thank Prof. P. Sambasiva Rao, Head, Department of Chemistry and Prof. P. P. Mathur, Head, Center for Bioinformatics, both my doctoral committee members for monitoring my research and for providing useful suggestions during my course.
- It is my duty to express my heart-willing thanks to Professor Lodovico Lunazzi, Bologna University, Italy, for his generous support for recording low temperature NMR spectra, theoretical studies and useful discussions. My special thanks to Dr. Mauro Paunzio, Bologna University, Italy, for his timely help.
- I would like express my gratitude to Madam (Dr. H. Kalpana, Reader, Department of English, Pondicherry University) for encouraging words and various get togethers in our lab. I thank H. Ranga Nikhil for his friendship.
- I take this moment to shower my words of gratitude on all our Department faculty members, namely, Prof. K. Anbalagan, Dr. Bidhu Bhusan Das, Dr. R. Venkatesan, Dr. Bala. Manimaran, Dr. G. Vasuki, Dr. N. Dastagiri Reddy, Dr. Balakrishna Rajan Dr. C. R. Ramanathan, and Dr. B. K. Saha who always supported me whenever I was in need of their help.

I sincerely record my gratitude to

- Professor V. Padmavathi, Department of Chemistry, Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati for her teaching and guidance.

- Professor A. Srikrishna, IISc Bangalore, for patiently recording several NMR spectra and Professor Amitabha Sarkar, IACS, Kolkata, for recording Mass spectra.
- Professor N. Parthasarathy, Department of Ecology, Pondicherry University for his encouragement and good words.
- Professor N. Gururow and Dr. S. J. Pratapa for recording single crystal XRD data and solving crystal structures.
- My teachers and faculty members at the Department of Chemistry, Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupathi. I mention the name of Professor C. Venkata Rao in particular for his constant concern in my progress.
- Mr. Gurupratap Reddy, my teacher, for his words of encouragement, from whom I got inspiration to pursue Chemistry.
- Technical and non-teaching staff at the Department of Chemistry, Pondicherry University, Puducherry, in particular Mr. Guhan and Mrs. Nirmala devi for their timely help. I would like to thank all other non-teaching staff members, Ejoumale, Shanmugam, Chandru, Prem and Rekha. And my thanks to all CIF staff members, particularly Er. Kasirajan.
- CSIR and Pondicherry University for financial support and providing facilities.
- Dr. S. P. Senthilkumar and Dr. Jothilingam for their help in my initial days in the lab.
- My past and present lab mates, Dr. B. Bharati, Dr. S. Rajamathe, Dr. E. Poonguzali, Dr. S. Sivakumar, L. Pushpalatha, Geetha, Vasantham, Venkataswamy, Guravaiah, Gopu, Saravanan, Balakishan, Ratheesh, Padmavathy and Priabratha for creating a professional as well as friendly atmosphere in the lab. It was great working with all of them who were so good at me. I express my thanks to M.Sc., and M.Phil. students who worked with me in the Department of Chemistry during my course of study for their help and friendly cooperation.
- All my batch mates and seniors at the Department of Chemistry, Pondicherry University, for their friendly cooperation.
- Friends, Murali, Srinu, Kiran, Nagesh, Nandu, Sivudu, Chandrahas, Subbaiah, Prakash, Ramtaz, Lashmipathi for their constant support.

- All research scholars Department of Chemistry, Pondicherry University, Puducherry, for their constant support. They were with me during highs and lows of my career in the Department. Amongst all, Sabari had been exceptional.
- Dr. M. S. Moni and other staffs of Regional Sophisticated Instrumentation Centre (SAIF), Indian Institute of Technology Madras, Chennai, Sophisticated Instruments Facility (SIF), Indian institute of Science, Bangalore for providing me NMR spectra.
- Mr. Prasad, control of examination wing, Pondicherry University, Puducherry, for taking care of my course requirements and his constant support.
- Mr. Siva Reddy, Department of Economics, Pondicherry University for his companionship during the course of my study. He continues to be a punch-bag to take all my frustrations and elations. I also thank Mr. K. Ramesh babu, Department of Chemistry Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati. His presence had been of a morale booster. I would like to thank all my hostel inmates for their friendly cooperation.

I indebted to my parents for their love, affection, constant encouragement and support. Without their help and uninterrupted nurturing, I would not have been what I am today; particularly I express my sincere thanks my brother Shaik Shafi who helped me a lot during the course of my study.

I express my whole hearted thank to Ammi, Mamu, my in-laws Fayaz, Jauv and Mohammad.

I express my thanks to Bhayya (Riyaz) and Babi (Munni), for their love, concern, affection and support throughout my research tenure.

I wish to express my gratitude to Ayesha for her love, her sacrifice, for being with me in my difficult times and for being patient with me when I did not give her enough attention. And lastly, it gives me immense pleasure to shower my love and affection on my daughter Roshni (Duddu) who always had complaint against me for not spending enough time her.

Finally I pray god almighty, for being omnipotent.
