Annexure-II

Q.1 Being a Minister how far are you responsible for a new policy proposal.
   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent

Q.2 Although policies are discussed in the cabinet, how far do you influence the policy.
   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent

Q.3 There are various technical problems regarding policy, are you solely dependent upon bureaucrats/technocrats about these technical problems.
   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent

Q.4 Though you are independent in finalising the policy proposals related to your department, but how much are you influenced by other factors like pressure groups, bureaucrats and general public.
   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent

Q.5 How far the vested interest succeed in moulding the policies in their favour.
   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent
Q.6 How far the discussion's in the party and in legislature affect the policy making strategies.

   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent

Q.7 How far do you gather the relevant data and information and feedback for policy making

   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent

Q.8 How far the financial resources influence the policy making:

   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent

Q.9 How far the priorities determine the policy making:

   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent

Q.10 How much the evaluation factor play its part for a change in policy making:

   i) great extent
   ii) some extent
   iii) no extent