CONTENTS

CHAPTER NO. PAGE NO.

INTRODUCTION 1

1. CULTURE - ITS MEANING AND SIGNIFICANCE

2. INDIAN CULTURE - A BRIEF ANALYSIS
   a. Indian Culture-survivor of reactions
   b. The Genesis of Indian Culture
   c. Value-The determinants of Culture
   d. Culture of India through the ages-A brief Analysis.
   e. The shocks and the shock-absorbers

3. RAMANUJA - THE STABILISER

4. THE CONTEMPORARY CHALLENGE TO INDIAN CULTURE

5. RAMANUJA'S PHILOSOPHY AND ITS CONTEMPORARY RELEVANCE

6. A STUDY OF RAMANUJA FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF CULTURE

7. CONTENTS OF THE THESIS

I CULTURE, PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION - THEIR RELATIONSHIP - A PANORAMIC PERSPECTIVE 11

PART A: ON CULTURE

A.1 Culture defined and Redefined
   A.1.1 An attempt at defining culture
   A.1.2 Way of life and Tradition
   A.1.3 Definition reviewed A.1.4 Aurobindo's concept of Culture

A.1.5 What is the key to achieve this harmony?

A.1.6 Way of life and Values

A.1.6.1 Value

A.1.6.2 Values - Classification

A.1.6.3 The nature and consequences of material values and Spiritual Values.
   a. Material Values
   b. Spiritual Values
   c. Integration of 'Time bound' (Material) and 'Time Beyond' (Spiritual) Values.

A.1.6.4 Values and Way of life

A.1.6.5 Culture Re-defined in terms of values

A.1.6.6 The two faces of Culture-Non-Living and Living

A.1.6.7 In addition to tradition, what are the other factors which keep a Culture alive and dynamic?
   a. Acceptance
   b. Accommodation
   c. Assimilation

A.1.6.8 The effect of the three 'A-s'-comprehension and compassion

A.1.6.9 The basis of the THREE 'A-s'-Spiritualism.
A.1.6.10 Difference in Quantity and not Quality

A.1.6.11 Relationship between culture and Philosophy

A.1.6.12 Philosophy and Culture - Interlinked.

A.1.6.13 The Question

PART B: ON PHILOSOPHY AND ITS LINK WITH RELIGION

B.1 The Why and what of Philosophy?

B.1.1 The 'WHY' of Philosophy?

B.1.2 Man-a Unique Animal - "MANIMAL"

B.1.3 The Fundamental Problems confronting man: What were the problems that troubled and are troubling man?

B.1.4 The 'WHAT' of Philosophy? Philosophy-The other name for the search.

B.1.5 A Persian Couplet

B.1.6 Age of Philosophy-as old as Humanity

B.1.7 Philosophising has no Limitations

B.1.8 Distinction between common sense and scientific Philosophy

B.1.9 Eastern and Western

B.1.10 Origin and Development of Systematic Philosophy in the West and East

a. West

b. East
B.1.11 The Common feature of Eastern and Western Philosophy

B.1.12 Can Philosophy be defined?

PART C: PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION AND CULTURE - THEIR INSEPARABILITY

C.1.1 Philosophy and Religion - Relation Recapituated

C.1.2 Religion and Culture - Both ways of life.

C.1.3 Religion and Culture - Ways of life - hair-line difference

C.1.4 Religion and Culture - complimentary and reversible

C.1.5 Philosophy, Religion and Culture - link established - Inseparable

II INDIAN CULTURE - ITS DESTABILITY AND STABILISERS - AN ANALYSIS

2.1.1 Indian Culture - The living Example of a living Culture.

2.1.2 Indian Culture - The vanguard among World Cultures

2.1.3 Spiritualism defined

2.1.4 How does Indian Philosophy arrive at the concept of Spirit?

2.1.5 The two-pronged employment of this Criterion

2.1.6 Analysis Explained

2.1.7 Reality identified

2.1.8 Only Spirit
2.1.9 What is Spiritualism? Definitions recapitulated

2.1.10 Its Features

2.1.11 Spiritual Values

2.1.12 Spiritual Values - Their off-shoots - "Three A-s" and the Three R-s"

2.1.13 Indian Culture and Spiritual Values

2.1.14 Spiritualism - The basic alignment of Indian Culture

2.2 The Various Challenges met

2.2.1 Exposure of Indian Culture

2.2.2 Major Religions that exerted influence

2.2.3 The De-Stabilising tendencies their Periods and Stabilisers

2.2.4 Certain Clarifications in regard to this classification

2.2.5 Four-in-one

2.3 The first phase of Challenge - The Destabilising Excrescences-Internal and External

2.3.1 I. Excrescences - Internal

2.3.2 Buddhism

   a. Culture in India prior or the advent of Buddhism

   b. Birth of Buddhism: and its non-vedic temperament

2.3.3 The sense of directions

2.3.4 After Buddha
2.3.5 Emergence of Tantrika Buddhism

2.3.6 The factors that contributed to the decline of Buddhism
   A. Internal
   B. External
   A. INTERNAL

2.3.7 Split in Buddhism and preference for Hinduism

2.3.8 Revival of Vedic Religion

2.3.9 Jainism - Non-Vedic

2.3.10 Causes of limited success of Jainism

2.3.11 The ten rules

2.3.12 Jainism, its popularity and decline

2.3.13 The effects of the influences of Buddhism and Jainism of the then Vedic Culture - An Analysis
   1. Positive effects
   2. Negative effects
   3. Other than Buddhism and Jainism

2.3.14 The Plight of Indian Culture

2.3.15 B. EXTERNAL

2.3.16 i. Islam

2.3.17 Chief doctrines of Islam

2.3.18 Impact of Islam over Indian Culture a. Positive
   b. Negative 2.3.19 How did it destabilise Indian Culture

2.3.20 How did Indian Culture Survive, then?

2.3.21 Guru Nanak - The Stabiliser

2.3.22 ii. Christianity
   1. Trinity in Christianity
   2. Influence of Indian Culture

2.3.23 iii. Science and Technology
   1. Science and Technology - a boon to humanity
   2. Also a bane
   3. Vital Question
   4. Answer

2.3.24 iv. Western Culture

2.3.25 Survival of Indian Culture

2.4 Indian Culture contrasted with other Cultures of the World-Greek and Roman

2.4.1 Their Salient Features
   i. Greek
   ii. Rome

2.4.2 Why they Failed
   1. Greek
   2. Rome
   3. Their failure to survive

2.4.3 Greek and Roman Cultures-Non-living or Dead

2.4.4 Indian Culture in relation to other Cultures
THE CONTRIBUTION OF RAMANUJA TO THE STABILITY OF INDIAN CULTURE - THEN

3.1 THE CAUSES THAT CONTRIBUTED TO THE STABILITY OF INDIAN CULTURE

3.1.1 Exposure of Indian Culture and its ability to withstand The Three "A-s" and Three "R-s" 3.1.2 Adaptation to changing times 3.1.3 The Adapters
3.1.4 The Question - The Three parts

PART A

3.2 THE CONDITION OF INDIAN CULTURE AT THE TIME OF RAMANUJA

3.2.1 Rāmānuja's Place in the Vedāntic Scheme
3.2.2 The destabilising tendencies 3.2.3 Conditions before and during the time of Śaṅkara a. Before
   b. During 3.2.4 Śaṅkara's Solution 3.2.5 An aerial view of the Philosophy of Śaṅkara
   a. Śaṅkara-Teacher Par-Excellence
   b. His Philosophy
      i. Reality
      ii. The concept of Māyā
      iii. Liberation
3.2.6 Important deviations from Śaṅkara's Philosophy - Post-Śaṅkara Advaita

a. Philosophical Baffling advaitic Concepts

b. Social

3.2.7 The need of the hour

3.2.8 The modality of approach- Rāmānuja's Solution

3.2.9 Rāmānuja's Criticism of the Philosophy of Śaṅkara

a. Conception of Reality

b. Śaṅkara's Conception of Māyā

c. Views on Liberation

PART B

3.3 THE THEISTIC METAPHYSICS OF RĀMĀNUJA

3.3.1 Absolutism and Theism-harmonised

3.3.2 Rāmānuja's Theism and Bhakti

3.3.3 The three fundamental concepts of Rāmānuja

3.3.4 Rāmānuja's conception of Īśwara or Reality

3.3.5 Rāmānuja's conception of Soul
   The nature of release

3.3.6 Rāmānuja's Conception of World

   1. Criticism of Māyā

   2. World not Māyā but real
3. Rāmānuja's seven important objections (anupapatti) against Saṅkara's theory of Māyā

a. Objections regarding its locus (Ashrayānupapatti)

b. Objections regarding its veiling power (Tirodhanānupapatti)

c. Objections regarding the nature of Māyā (Svarūpānupapatti)

d. Objections regarding Māyā's characteristic as anirvachaniya (Aninvachaniyānupapatti)

e. Objections regarding the Pramāṇas for establishing Māyā (Pramāṇānupapatti)

f. Objections against the remover of Māyā (Nivartakānupapatti)

g. Objections against the removal of Māyā (Nivrtyānupapatti)

3.3.7 Relationship between Reality and Individual Self

a. Rāmānuja's Preference

b. Rāmānuja's Philosophy-ORGANISMAL rather than qualified Non-Dualism (VISISTA ADVAITA)

c. Means to practically orient that Relationship

3.3.8 Relationship between Reality and World

3.3.9 Śaraṇāgathi

3.3.10 Nature of Hita (The Way)

3.3.11 Nature of Puruṣārtha (The Goal)

3.3.12 Humanism of Saṅkara and Rāmānuja- A comparative assessment
PART C

3.4 RAMANUJA'S THEISTIC HUMANISM AND THE STABILITY OF INDIAN CULTURE

3.4.1 Theistic Humanism

Humanism

a. Humanism and Indian Philosophy

b. Basis of Humanism

c. Rāmānuja's Theistic Humanism

1. Theism defined
2. Its different kinds
3. Theism integrated with Humanism

3.4.2 Stability of Indian Culture

a. In what respects, did Rāmānuja's Theistic Humanism contribute to the stability of the then Indian Culture?

b. Rāmānuja's time - a recapitualation

c. Rāmānuja's solution

d. The Philosophy of Organismal Non-Dualism-expressed in Indian Culture

e. Organismal Non-dualism applied

f. Integration of Theory and Practice

g. How did Rāmānuja apply his Philosophy for reinterpreting Indian Culture of his times at the Philosophical and Social levels?

h. National Integration - at the Social level

i. Integration laid on an emotional footing IV THE RELEVANCE OF THE PHILOSOPHY OF RAMANUJA TO INDIAN CULTURAL SITUATION, NOW

4.1 On contemporary Indian Cultural Situation

4.1.1 Repetition of History

4.1.2 The main question

4.2 Reasons for the present condition a. Religion diverted from life
   b. No integration between thought, word and deed
   c. Efficacy of values, not taught
   d. Everyone of us is aware of the Human Values but not its significance
   e. Indian Cultural tradition - not taught
   f. Faulty Educational Pattern
   g. Education - Nothing to do with life

4.3 Remedy
   What is the way out?
   a. Importance of Values
   b. Interpretation of Philosophical Concepts

4.4 The application of Rāmānuja's Theo-Centric Humanism to the then Indian Culture
   i. Theistic Level

4.5 Modality of its application for Contemporary Problems
   a. Application at the micro Level
   b. Application at the macro level
c. Application at the level of Religion - Religion per-se, a way of life

d. Applicability of Devotion as a Panacea for the Contemporary emotional instability

4.6 Modality of Application-Awareness Inducement through Bhakti and Education

a. Awareness Inducement and Integration

b. From small seeds tall oaks grow

Conclusion

Bibliography