Acknowledgement

I feel extreme pleasure to present this thesis titled “A Study of Resource Allocation Models and Algorithms with Application in Educational Resources” to Sant Gadg, Baba Amravati University, Amravati, which would have been impossible without the help and assistance of valuable individuals.

In particular, the first and foremost person with every reason to pay my deepest gratitude with honour is my guide Dr. H. S. Lunge, Reader, Department of Statistics, Shri Shivaji Science College, Amravati, whose meticulous supervision, technical talent, scientific understanding is a treasure that has contributed greatly to the quality of this research work. Moreover, he patiently provided the encouragement, prompt comments and timely suggestions with continuous guiding spirit necessary for me to proceed through the doctoral program. His help came right from inception to the conclusion of the research work and he did so even his domestic comforts were disturbed.

It is my proud privilege to express my sincere thanks to Dr. (Mrs.) S. A. Ghosh, Director, Govt. Vidarbha Institute of Science and Humanities, Amravati for giving me timely help that served as a milestone.

It is indeed a matter of great pleasure and honour, I express my earnest thanks and gratitude to Prof. V. G. Bhauburkar, Principal, Shri. Shivaji Science College, Amravati and Secretary of Shri. Shivaji Education Society, Amravati. It is due to his personal and sincere stimulating inspiration, positive criticism and unfailing encouragement source of wise console nobility throughout my work. He extended all possible help without any time barrier apart from his busy schedule.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. R. G. Kedia, Head, Department of Statistics G.V.I.S.H., Amravati for his valuable suggestions and providing the facilities throughout this work with care and affection.

It is a pleasant task of remembering and acknowledging the help rendered by Shri. Vijay B. Mathankar, IAS, Administrative member of Maharashtra Administrative Tribunal (MAT), Mumbai and Mrs. Sandhya V. Mathankar who cared about my work and me and made it possible for me to gather the concerned literature from the library of IT Powai, Mumbai.
I also gratefully recognize the value of invaluable help readily extended to me by Prof. M. S. Kasture, Lecturer, Department of Statistics, New Arts, Commerce and Science College, Ahmednager for providing me research papers and literature as and when required during his official and personal assignments.

Any project is not just the outcome of dedication of a single person. Many forces harbour behind this labour. For the same reason I would like to acknowledge my sincere thanks for the valuable help provided by Mr. Mamesh Mathankar, Search Computers, Amravati, who have given computerized laser dimensions to my manuscripts of the thesis. He always enquired about my research work and motivated me to complete this project.

My very many sincere thanks to my friends and colleagues, Sadhana, Nanda, Nilima, Madhuri, Meera and Pratibha and other teaching and non teaching staff members of the department of Statistics for their ceaseless moral support, constant encouragement, affection and help to complete this piece of work.

I am also thankful for the kind cooperation and time to time help extended by Dr. S. V. Chaudhary, Head, Shri N. S. Nakeshwar and Shri U. V. Kale, Department of Statistics, Shri Shivaji Science College, Amravati.

Feelings are beyond the range, that words can not cover. This work is a tribute to the affection and blessings of my mother Smt. S. P. Parkhe, my inlaws and all family members who are a divine source of encouragement for me.

I feel myself fortunate enough to get hospitality, kindness and support from Dr.(Mrs.) Alka H. Lunge, Reader, Department of Marathi, Bhartiya Mahavidyalaya, Amravati.

I also thank my beloved children, Ms. Nupoor and Master Reetik whose complaints remained outside the audible range, permitting me to complete this work in after hours. Last but not the least I am most delighted to thank my husband, Mr. Kiran B. Mathankar for being so cooperative and understanding throughout the tenure with ceaseless moral support without which this dream would not have been a reality.

Mrs. Mayura K. Mathankar
