ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I offer my sincerest gratitude to my Supervisor as well as my Mentor, Prof. A. Lanunungsang Ao Pro Vice-Chancellor Nagaland University, Meriema, who has supported me throughout my research works with his patience and knowledge whilst allowing me the room to work in my own way. I extend my profound thanks for his valuable advice, wise comments and suggestions on my research works which have been priceless.

I would also like to thank all the faculty members of the Department of Sociology, Nagaland University, Lumami for their advices, support, encouragement and guidance throughout my research period.

My sincere thanks also goes to all the hosts and guides who provided me all the necessary arrangements and made me comfortably stay during my field work exercise in all the districts of Nagaland. Special and heartily thanks to Mr. Alemba (Pastor) Ao Baptist Church Phek, Mr. Chingmak ECS, Mr. Imo Counsellor Civil Hospital Tuensang, Mr. Timothy and his family Peren, Miss. Thrisila Kiphire, Mr. Along Longleng, Mrs. Toinali Zunheboto, Mrs. Nzanbeni Wokha, Mrs. Akangchila and Uncle Imcha Dimapur, Mr. Amongba Mon and Miss. Akumienla Jamir Kohima. I pray that almighty God will bless them richly for their good deeds.

I must express my gratitude and indebtedness to all my Co-Research Scholars especially to Mr. Velhou Koza for the continued support and encouragement.

Completing this work would have been all the more difficult were it not for the support and friendship provided by all the respondents from – PLWHA’S, NGO Fraternity, NSACS, all the religious organisations, all the Jail officials of Prison Department; Nagaland, Jail Inmates from Central Jail Dimapur, District Jails and Sub-Jails of Nagaland, Students and youth from different sections both High Schools, Colleges and Dropouts, Doctors and other Medical Staff, Administrators and Law Enforcing Agencies and Care Centres/Homes of Nagaland, who have contributed positively towards the success of my research work. I am indebted to them for their help.

Words cannot express how grateful I am to my parents and Siblings for all the sacrifices that they’ve made on my behalf. Their prayer for me was what sustained me thus far.

I would also like to thank all my friends who supported me on writing my Thesis and incented me to strive towards my goal. Big thanks to Aien Ozukum and my dear fiancé Moa for being my support pillars.

Finally, I would like to thank University Grants Commission for Providing me 'Rajiv Gandhi National Fellowship for ST Candidates' funded by Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment and Ministry of Tribal Affairs which allowed me to undertake this research.

L. Merensangla