ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My prayer to God for keeping me mentally intact throughout the days of my work.

I offer my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr Kishore Kumar Bhattacharjee Sir, Head of the Department of Folklore Research, Gauhati University for his guidance and support throughout the course of my study. I consider myself fortunate for being able to work with a very considerate and encouraging scholar like him. He introduced me to the technicalities of research. Through his counselling my tiny thought has seen the form of a thesis. He has given his valuable time, advice, criticism and correction to my work from the beginning to the end of the writing.

I take this opportunity to offer my special thanks to Sir Ülo Volk from the Department of Folklore, University of Tartu, Estonia for kindly familiarising me with the rich elements of Folklore and its relationship with the other genres.

My deep regards go to Dr Anil Boro Sir of the Dept of Folklore Research, GU for his constant help and interaction at the time of need. I would also like to take the opportunity to acknowledge my gratitude to Dr Prabin Das Sir and Dr Dilip Kalita Sir especially in connection with the field study and research writing respectively. Dr Mrinal Medhi Sir kindly consented to travel to my institution for the screening of the FDP procedure. I express my gratitude to him.

The road to my Ph D study started with the guidance of Dr Nandana Dutta Madam of the Department of English, GU. I take this opportunity to say heartful thanks to Dr Nandana Dutta Madam. My teacher Dr Rakhi Maral from the department of English, Cotton College puts me in the track where I am today by introducing me to my supervisor. My reverence to Dr Rakhi Maral Madam.

I am grateful to Professor M Taher Sir for showing me the possible avenues in my study area. I offer my special respect to Dr Arupjyoti Saikia Sir from the Dept of English, IIT, Guwahati for his valuable suggestion on river study.

I would like to offer my gratitude to Late Dr Dhanjit Medhi Sir for showing me the steps to proceed for the research activity.

My special gratitude and thanks to Sjt Mrinal Devburman, presently Consultant All India Radio, North Eastern Region for providing any information instantly whenever it is asked for.

I owe my debt to the librarians and other staff of Krishna Kanta Handiqui Library of Gauhati University, Departmental Library of Folklore Research Department, National Library, Kolkata, Library of Cotton College, ICHR (NE) Library, Kamrup Anusandhan Samiti, Nanda Talukdar Foundation, Guwahati, Library of Academic Staff College, Guwahati and the Sonapur College Library. My special thanks goes to Mr Lalit Bora of Satirtha who is always ready to provide necessary rare books during my study.

I offer my special thanks to Dr Devabrot Khanikor Sir, Principal, Sonapur College for his instant encouragement especially for his administrative help for acquiring the Award of Teacher Fellowship under Faculty Development Programme of UGC.

I am grateful to Dr Nizara Hazarika my friend colleague for her continuous support throughout my work especially in my initial stage of writing when I was struggling with conceptualising the theoretical framework.
My colleague brother Asraf Ali deserves thanks for he has nicely drawn the maps for the thesis. I highly acknowledge the support of my other colleagues of my college. Special thanks to Dr Biman Patowary, Dr Maniram Kalita and Dr Boby Das for lending me some primary texts and reference books and to Dipa Baideu and Gitima for constantly asking me about the progress of my work.

Dr Shantana Saikia’s commanding voice has remained a strong source of motivation during my study especially in the final stage of writing. My graceful thanks to her. The overall contribution of Gargee and Abhijit inspires me a lot. My lovely thanks to them. My heartfelt thank to Ms Afsana Begum Borbhuyan of Cotton College for landing me rare valuable books.

Mr Bhaskar Boro deserves special thanks without whose technical assistance my thesis would not see the present form. I convey special thanks to Tapan and Manab for taking the labour in collecting materials for my study. Elmina accompanied me during my field investigation. Special thanks to her. My cousin Kulen Talukdar and Abul Kalam Azad helped me in deciphering the discourses of the char people without which my field study would have remained incomplete. I owe indebted to them. My field study was also assisted by Chandramita and Ratul Mallbaruah. They deserve special mention.

I fondly remember my Deuta whose unseen presence holds my mind and hand to move to the required direction. My mother and mother-in-law and brothers, Muktikam and Pranab, sister Mandakini and brother-in-law Amaresh deserve mention to acknowledge.

I am thankful to Amar for his helping me in reaching my places of work in time. I would love to mention Puspa and Rumi whose presence gifts me the valued time.
Words cannot express my gratitude to my immediate family. My daughter Manoo wanted me to finish my work early. Her encouraging words accelerate my work. My son Aku loved to help me with the technical things. They deserve special space in my study. My husband Dr Bipul Borah always shows me the avenues under my thrust area. He has been and is a patient listener to the pros and cons of my task. I owe my indebtedness to him.
