ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

During the course of this research, I have been indebted to numerous wonderful people who have inspired and helped me to complete this work. At the outset, I would like to give my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Prof. Monirul Hussain, Department of Political Science, Gauhati University, for introducing me to the world of borders and also for his guidance and intellectual inputs in completing this thesis. My heartfelt thanks also go to the faculty and staff, Department of Political Science, Gauhati University for their advice, suggestions and encouragement. I am also thankful to University Grants Commission for providing me with Junior Research Fellowship covering the research expenses.

I am also grateful to the librarians and staff of the following libraries for providing me sources relating to this work: K.K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, Indian Council of Historical Research-North East, Guwahati, Central Library, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong, Indian Council Social Science Research-North East, Shillong, Omeo Kumar Das Institute of Social Change, Guwahati, North East Social Research Centre, Guwahati, Eastern Theological College, Jorhat, Patkai Christain College (Autonomous), Dimapur, District Library, Kohima and Tenyimia Guest House Library, Mon.

I am indebted to Mr. H. Epao, Principal, Patkai Christain College (Autonomous), Dimapur, Nagaland and the faculty members of Department of Political Science for granting me study leave to concentrate fully on this research.

The people of Longwa village especially the respondents have been so helpful throughout the entire field work. Thank you all for your hospitality, cooperation, insightful information and your precious time. Lots of love and appreciation to Api and Opu (Nahlak’s parents) and rest of the family members for providing me a home far away from home. My deepest respect goes to the chief Ahng for his kindness. Heartfelt gratitude goes to the village historian, Mr. Penjun and his son, Mr. Yanlang for providing me with such wonderful insights. You are the real mines of this village.

I am immensely grateful to Mr. Manwang Konyak, Ms. Pehlak Monyu and Mr. Nahlak for being my guide, companion and interpreter during my field work. I would
