PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Bodos are among the old tribe residing in Assam. Still they are scattered all over Assam in most of the districts. They have their own culture, custom, language, dress and own living style etc. The Bodos are the highest populated tribe of Assam and a part of larger Assamese community. The Bodo language is of Tibeto-Burman origin. The influence of other language is reflected in their language. This study was carried out to make a general survey on the folk customs of the Bodos residing in Goalpara district of Assam.

The completion of the work was possible due to help and guidance of many persons and several departments and organizations and the people of Bodo villages who help me with their suggestions in my work. For my present study I received help from many well wishers, friends and a good number of informants belonging to the Bodo people of village area of Goalpara district. It is my pleasant duty to express my deep sense of gratitude to all of them.

I hereby take the opportunity of expressing my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Anil Kumar Boro, Research Guide, Department of Folklore Research, Gauhati University, for kindly suggesting me to undertake this research problem, his constant guidance, encouragement and inspirations throughout this research.

I am also grateful to Dr. Kishore Kumar Bhattacharjee H. O. D., Dept. of Folklore Research and Dr. Bhupen Narzaree, H. O. D., Dept. of Bodo, Gauhati University for their suggestions and inspirations.

I am also grateful to Dr. M. Devi Rabha, Principal and Dr. Ananya Baruah Vice Principal, Bikali College for their constant inspirations and suggestions.
I would like to put on record my sincere appreciation to the Bodo people of Goalpara district specially to them from whom I gathered relevant information for the study and my friends Nikunja Das, Pranab Narzary, Rahel Mochary and Bimala Hazowary for extending all possible help to me during this work. I am really grateful to them, for helping with books manuscripts, Photographs etc. I would like to express my indeptness to Utpal Khakhalary and Nava Kr. Daimary who assisted me in collecting data and other relevant materials and helped me in this respect.

I also acknowledge my thanks to all the professors of Bikali college specially, Dr. M. Gopal Singh, HoD. dept of Geography, Dr. A. H. Ahmed, HoD. dept. of Economics, Mrs. Manalisha Roychowdhury HoD. dept. of English, Mrs. Rajlakshmi Hazarika dept of English, Mrs. Champabati Khakhalary and Mrs. Mainasri Basumatarie dept of Bodo and Ms. Swarnalata Devi, Librarian of Bikali College for their kind help during my work.

I owe a special debt of love and gratitude to my mother and my father who unfortunately passed away last year, for their inspirations, constant help and care in my work throughout the period from very beginning.

I am also thankful to my sisters and brother in laws who always encouraged and help me during the course of my work, without which the work would not have appeared in the present form.

Date: 16/12/14

(Seemashree Daimary)